WYOMING SUPREME COURT APPOINTS SHAWNA GOETZ
ACTING CLERK OF THE SUPREME COURT

Chief Justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court Michael K. Davis today signed an Order appointing Shawna Goetz as Acting Clerk of the Wyoming Supreme Court. Ms. Goetz has been the Deputy Court Clerk since October 2014, and is skilled in e-filing, as well as the many other duties required to manage appeals in the Wyoming Supreme Court. She replaces Patty Bennett, who is leaving the Supreme Court to take a position with the Public Defender office in Laramie, Wyoming. Laura Mickey will continue as Chief Deputy Clerk, and the office will operate with two clerks instead of three for the foreseeable future. “The judicial branch is making every effort to achieve budget cuts that these economic times demand of all of State government,” Chief Justice Davis said, “and we appreciate our clerks’ willingness to make the extra effort to continue this important work with fewer resources.”
