OVERVIEW

People who appear for themselves without an attorney are considered to be "self-represented" and are also known as "pro se" litigants. This packet is often referred to as the "pro se divorce packet." These packets work best when parties are able to agree, and become more difficult when there are children, disagreements about property, financial interests, violence, harassment or coercion. Many areas of family law are very complicated, and some courts in the State of Wyoming require certain things that others courts do not. Therefore, it is not possible to include all legal solutions available to people in a divorce action in a single packet. Again, this packet will be most useful for people involved in an uncontested divorce (i.e., you both agree on all matters). There are other types of actions available, including temporary orders on child custody, support, alimony and restraining orders that are not included in this packet and might be easier to obtain with an attorney. These forms have been created to benefit the majority of people who represent themselves while also understanding that people with complex or emergency circumstances may continue to find themselves better served by getting an attorney. We hope you find this packet and the resources that it contains helpful.

DOMESTIC/FAMILY VIOLENCE:

If you or your children have been a victim of family (domestic) violence, it is recommended that you find an attorney to help you. There may be assistance available even if you cannot afford an attorney. Contact the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault (1-307-755-0992), Legal Aid of Wyoming (1-877-432-9955) or the Wyoming State Bar (1-307-632-9061) www.wyomingbar.org. If you have concerns about confidential information such as addresses and/or social security numbers, please consult an attorney and do not attempt to do this on your own. You should also know that Protection Orders and Stalking Orders are available free of charge at the circuit court clerk's office. Please call the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault for assistance in obtaining domestic violence protection or stalking orders (1-307-755-0992). If you have ever obtained a protection order involving your spouse, you should include this information in the Complaint for Divorce or Counterclaim under the "Other Proceedings" section.

- This information packet is intended to provide general information to obtain a divorce.
- There is no guarantee these forms are still accurate and/or current. The information in this packet is not intended to replace an attorney.
- If you represent yourself, YOU PROCEED AT YOUR OWN RISK. You must decide which forms apply to your situation.
- DO NOT USE all forms, as some forms may not apply.
- Fill out the necessary forms completely and correctly.

Print or type all of the documents. DO NOT SIGN YOUR NAME WHERE THE JUDGE OR CLERK SHOULD SIGN.

LAWS: All laws and rules that apply to attorneys apply to you. It is your responsibility to properly prepare and file the necessary documents. The Judge will not sign orders that are incorrect or incomplete, nor will the Judge give you legal advice or make corrections for you.

You should read Title 20 of the Wyoming Statutes (the divorce laws), and you should also read the Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure. Most of the District Courts in the State of Wyoming have a courthouse library or county library where these laws and rules can be read. You may also look up these laws and rules on the internet at: www.courts.state.wy.us and clicking on "law library." Some courts have special forms they want you to use in addition to the forms contained in this packet. Check with the clerk before you file your documents.

Clerks May Not Help You Fill Out the Forms. Unless your county has a court facilitator, employees in the Clerk of District Court's office and in the Judge's office cannot help you or give you legal advice.

The Judge Cannot Talk to You, Answer Your Questions or Assist You. Exparte communication is communication with the Judge with only one party present. If you have something you need to tell the Judge, you must ask for a hearing and give notice to the other party or file a written statement in the Court file and send a copy of the written statement to the other party.

Situations that Need an Attorney. Federal law may impact the division of retirement benefits, employer-provided health insurance, or other benefits which arise out of the employment of either party, and your settlement terms may not be honored by the employer or the plan administrator of the employee benefits plan if your divorce decree is not properly completed or if a "qualified domestic relations order" (QDRO) is required. In addition, in the division of retirement benefits, there may be tax consequences which you may not anticipate. If your divorce involves issues like these, see an attorney to discuss tax consequences or the terms of a QDRO, or, if dealing with insurance issues or a "qualified medical child support order."

In addition to the above situations, you should consult an attorney if:

- You are a victim of domestic/family violence
- The other party hires an attorney
- You or the other party are contemplating filing bankruptcy
- You or the other party expect to receive money because of a personal injury
- You or the other party own a business
- You or the other party have significant assets or debts
- You or the other party own real estate

Truthfulness. It is absolutely essential that you be completely honest and accurate in completing all forms. There are penalties for attempting to mislead the Court. You should read Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure, Rule 11 (representations to the court) and Wyoming Statute § 6-5-301 (perjury).

Unauthorized Practice of Law Notice. The purpose of this packet is to assist those persons who are doing their own divorce. It may be an unauthorized practice of law for a person who is not a licensed attorney to assist others in obtaining a divorce. Such practice could subject a guilty party to punishment for contempt of court.

You are reminded that if you choose to continue without an attorney, you are expected to know what to do and how to do it. The Wyoming Supreme Court has said: "A pro se litigant (one without an attorney) will be granted no greater right than any other litigant and he must expect and receive...the same treatment as if represented by an attorney..." In other words, if you do not have an attorney you will be held to the same standards as a person with an attorney.

FAMILY LAW INFORMATION AND INSTRUCTIONS

CONFIDENTIALITY: If you have concerns about keeping information confidential, such as your address and/or social security number, please consult an attorney. You should also know that Domestic Violence Protection Orders or Stalking Orders are available free of charge at the circuit court clerks' offices. You may request assistance in obtaining Domestic Violence Protection or Stalking Orders from your local domestic violence or sexual assault program or you may call the Wyoming Coalition Against Domestic Violence & Sexual Assault (844) 264-8080 (toll free) or (307) 755-0992. There are also private attorneys who may be willing to assist clients in these matters. If you have ever obtained a Protection Order against the other party, this information should be indicated in the Complaint for Divorce or the Counterclaim.

Read through the following information and instructions before completing the forms to make sure you qualify to file a divorce in Wyoming. To file a complaint, either 1) you or your spouse must live in Wyoming for at least sixty (60) days immediately before you file, or 2) you must have been married in Wyoming and you or your spouse must have lived in Wyoming ever since. You must fill out all forms as completely as possible. If your forms are not complete, the Judge may reject your packet.

Step 1. Getting Started. The following forms are required in all uncontested divorce cases. It is recommended that you complete all of these forms before you file the Complaint for Divorce so that they will be ready to be filed at the appropriate time:

- 1. Civil Cover Sheet
- 2. Vital Statistics form
- 3. Complaint for Divorce (with Children)
- 4. Summons
- 5. Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service
- 6. Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order
- 7. Confidential Financial Affidavit
- 8. Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties
- 9. Decree of Divorce (with Children)
- 10. Order for Income Withholding
- 11. Income Withholding for Support (or, you can open a case with your local child support enforcement agency)

*Other forms may be required depending on the Court and on your situation. If additional forms are needed, they will be discussed below where applicable.

Step 2. File your divorce case. A divorce case begins with the filing of a Complaint for Divorce. A Complaint for Divorce is a written request to the court for a divorce. The person who originally asks for this legal action is called the Plaintiff and remains the Plaintiff throughout the case.

Notarizing Signatures. You will need to sign the Complaint for Divorce and have it notarized. Notarial Officers may administer the oath and witness your signature, or in many cases, Clerks of Court will be willing to administer the necessary oath. Each Clerk's office has their own policy so check with them first before seeking notarization of your signature on the forms.

Where to file. You will file your case in the District Court in the county where either you or your spouse resides. The Complaint for Divorce is given to the Clerk of the District Court, whose office is usually located in the county courthouse or a branch of the county courthouse. A list of the Clerks of District Court for each Judicial District is included in the packet. A filing fee is required. Ask the Clerk what the amount of the filing fee is and what forms of payment are accepted.

Case Number: When you start a lawsuit by filing the paperwork with the Clerk of the District Court, a case number will be assigned by the Clerk. You must include that case number on all further paperwork in the "caption." The caption is the top section of a pleading, motion, and complaint stating the name of the Plaintiff, the Defendant, the District Court the case is filed in and the case number.

Other forms to file with the Complaint.

- A. When you file the Complaint for Divorce, you will also need to file the Civil Cover Sheet. Follow the instructions that accompany this form.
- B. You will also need to file the Vital Statistics form. Fill out all portions of this form EXCEPT the "Decree" section, which will be completed by the Clerk when your divorce is final
- C. You will also need to fill out and file a Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order. This form provides the Court with personal information (such as social security numbers and birth dates) of the parties involved in your case as required by statute, but permits the information to be located in a confidential file so that the general public does not have access to the information.
 - D. You will also need to have the Clerk sign (a/k/a "issue") the Summons.

How many copies. Take the original and two (2) copies of each document to the Clerk's office. The Clerk will give copies of each document back to you after stamping them with the date they were filed. This is called a "file stamp." You should keep one copy of each document for your records. The other set of documents will need to be served upon the Defendant.

Summary of Step 2: To start your divorce case, you will need to file the following documents with the Clerk of the District Court's office located in the county courthouse in the county where either you or your spouse resides:

- A. Civil Cover Sheet
 - a. Follow the instructions that accompany this form for help completing it correctly;
- B. Vital Statistics Form
 - a. Fill out all portions, EXCEPT the "Decree" section, which will be completed by the Clerk when your divorce is final;
- C. Complaint for Divorce (with Children);
- D. Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order; and
- E. Summons;
- F. Pay the filing fee;
- G. Take the original and two (2) copies of each document to the Clerk's office.
 - a. The Clerk will give both copies back to you after file-stamping them.
 - b. You should keep one copy for your records.
 - c. The other set of documents will need to be served upon the Defendant (Step 3).

Step 3. Serve the Defendant. The person against whom the original legal action is being requested is called the Defendant and remains the Defendant throughout the case. The Defendant is expected to file an answer to the Complaint for Divorce.

Once your case has been filed with the Clerk, a file-stamped copy of the paperwork must be formally given to (a/k/a served on) the Defendant. The Defendant needs to be served with the Complaint for Divorce, the Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order, and the Summons so the Court has proof that he or she received the papers. A Sheriff must personally serve the Complaint for Divorce, Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order, and the Summons on the Defendant, unless the Defendant completes an Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form. Other forms of service exist, but these are the two easiest methods that meet the formal service requirement for a Complaint for Divorce. If you cannot serve the Defendant by either of these methods, ask the Clerk for additional forms for alternative methods of service. These forms are also available in Pro Se Packet 10.

You MUST give the Defendant official notice that you have filed for divorce within 90 days from the date you filed the Complaint for Divorce and Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order. This is done by serving a file-stamped copy of the Summons, the Complaint for Divorce, and the Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order upon the Defendant or by having the Defendant sign an Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form stating that copies of those documents were received. If you do not serve the Defendant within 90 days, your case can be dismissed by the Court.

A. How to Serve the Defendant. Choose ONLY ONE of the following options to serve the Defendant:

Option 1– Service by Sheriff

Summons. It is recommended to have a Sheriff in the county where the Defendant can be found serve him or her with the papers. There will be a separate service fee (usually fifty ($50.00) dollars in Wyoming). You can contact the Sheriff's department in the county where the Defendant lives to determine the fee charged by the Sheriff. This is also true if your spouse is going to be served out of state. You will need to provide the Sheriff in the county where your spouse resides with a file-stamped copy of the Summons, Complaint for Divorce, and Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order to be served on the Defendant.

Proof of Service. The Sheriff's office will complete the last page of the Summons called the "Return" (or they may have their own form – an "Affidavit of Service") and will usually file the original with the Clerk's office and send you a copy. If you receive what looks like the original "Return" or "Affidavit of Service" from the Sheriff, call the Clerk's office to ensure the original has been filed. If it has not, then file the original with the Clerk's office and keep a copy for yourself. This is the proof that the Defendant was given proper notice.

Note: Once the Defendant has been served, you MUST file the original Summons and the Return (or Affidavit of Service) with the Clerk's office so that the Judge knows that proper service was made.

OR:

Option 2 – Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service. If the Defendant agrees, he or she may sign a form stating that a file-stamped copy of the Summons, Complaint for Divorce, and Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order were received. If the Defendant agrees, you will need to fill out an Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service form. The Defendant must sign this document in front of a notarial officer.

Proof of Service. Once the Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service form is signed, the original and two (2) copies of the signed form must go to the Clerk's office for filing. You should keep one copy for your records and provide the other copy to the Defendant.

Note: You must file the signed Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service AND the Summons with the Clerk's office so that the Judge knows that proper service was made on the Defendant.

Summary of Step 3: You MUST give the Defendant official notice that you have filed for divorce within 90 days from the date you filed the Complaint for Divorce. Choose one of the following methods:

Option 1 – Service by Sheriff

- A. Provide a file-stamped copy of the Summons, Complaint for Divorce, and Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order to the Sheriff where the Defendant lives;
- B. Pay the service fee; and
- C. Once the Defendant is served, be sure the original Summons and the original Return or Affidavit of Service are filed with the Clerk's office; OR

Option 2 – Acknowledgement and Acceptance of Service

- A. Provide a file-stamped copy of the Summons, Complaint for Divorce, and Confidential Statement of the Parties for Child Support Order to the Defendant;
- B. Have the Defendant sign the Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form in front of a notarial officer:
- C. File the original Acknowledgment and Acceptance of Service form with the Clerk's office; and
- D. File the original Summons with the Clerk's office

 $Family\ Law\ Information\ and\ Instructions\ for\ Divorce\ (With\ Children)$

Effective: July 1, 2023.

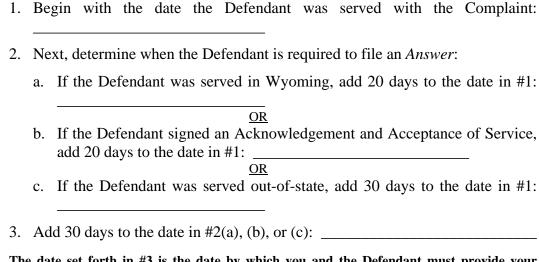

- Step 4. Wait for the Defendant's time to Answer to expire. Once the Defendant is served, he or she has 20 days (if served in the State of Wyoming) or 30 days (if served out-of-state) to file an Answer to the Complaint for Divorce. You must wait for the appropriate time period to expire before you can proceed with the divorce case. You must wait the 20 days (or 30 days if served out-of-state) even if the Defendant tells you that he or she is not going to file an Answer.
 - Computation of Time Limits. In computing most time limits, unless otherwise stated, the day the document is served shall not be included. The last day of the time period is included, unless it lands on a Saturday, a Sunday, or a legal holiday, or, if the Court is closed, then the time limit will be on the very next day that the Courthouse is open. If you have questions about time limits you should seek the advice of an attorney.
 - While waiting, move on to Step 5. You can also use this time to continue to work on the other required forms to be sure they are filled out completely and correctly.

Summary of Step 4: You MUST wait for the Defendant's time to file an Answer to expire before you can proceed with your divorce case. In the meantime:

- A. Mark on the calendar when the Defendant's time to Answer expires;
- B. Move on to Step 5 while waiting; and
- C. Use this time to ensure the required forms are filled out completely and correctly.
- Step 5. Initial Disclosures. The law requires certain information be made available to the other party within thirty (30) days after the Defendant's Answer is required to be served on the Plaintiff (use the table in 5.A. below to determine date). The information consists of a schedule of financial assets; schedule of non-financial assets; schedule of all debts owed individually or jointly; location(s) of safety deposit box(es); employment information; information regarding other income and retirement accounts; and a summary of the facts believed to support the claim of superior entitlement to custody where child custody is at issue. Both parties are required to provide this information in order to fully disclose finances of the parties relating to the calculation of child support.

Please note that "A party must make its disclosures based on the information then reasonably available to it and is not excused from making its disclosures because it has not fully completed its investigation of the case or because it challenges the sufficiency of another party's disclosures or because another party has not made its disclosures."

A. WHEN TO PROVIDE: Initial Disclosures must be provided to the Defendant (or his/her attorney) WITHIN 30 DAYS AFTER THE DEFENDANT'S ANSWER IS REQUIRED TO BE SERVED ON YOU (use table below). Be sure to keep a copy of your Initial Disclosures form for your records. Use the following to determine the date when you and the Defendant are required to provide initial disclosures to one another.

The date set forth in #3 is the date by which you and the Defendant must provide your completed Initial Disclosures forms to one another.

B. DO NOT FILE THE INITIAL DISCLOSURES WITH THE COURT. This form is only given to the Defendant (or his/her attorney).

RECAP for Step 5: You MUST provide your Initial Disclosures to the Defendant within 30 days after the Defendant's Answer is required to be served on you (use the table in 5.A. above to determine date). Mark on the calendar the deadline to provide your Initial Disclosures; and

- A. Provide your Initial Disclosures to the Defendant by the deadline.
- B. DO NOT file the Initial Disclosures with the Clerk's office.

Step 6. Once the time for the Defendant to file an Answer has expired and you've sent your Initial Disclosures to the Defendant, then several options exist to move your case forward to get a Decree of Divorce. Pick the option that best describes your situation:

Option A. If the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim and you both agree on all of the issues of your divorce, follow Option A below.

Option B. If the Defendant did not file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, follow Option B below.

Option C. If the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim and you do NOT agree on all of the issues of your divorce, follow Option C.

Option A. The following instructions apply if the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, and you both agree on all of the issues of your divorce. If you and the Defendant agree on the issues involved in your divorce, then you will need to complete the following:

- A. Fill out a Confidential Financial Affidavit and attach all required documents.
 - Both parties are required to file a Confidential Financial Affidavit including the required attachments with the Court. If the Defendant does NOT file a Confidential Financial Affidavit, you will need to complete an Affidavit of Imputed Income to show the Court how much money the Defendant makes. This is an additional form contained in your packet.
 - Required Attachments. The Confidential Financial Affidavits of the parties must be supported with documentation of both current and past earnings. Proper documentation of current earnings includes, but is not limited to, pay stubs, employer statements, or receipts and expenses if self-employed. Documentation of current earnings shall be supplemented with copies of the most recent tax return to provide verification of earnings over a longer period. Include copies of income tax returns for the previous two years and your most recent pay stub(s) to show how much you have made so far this year. Be sure to also include copies of your health insurance cards, if applicable.
- B. Fill out an Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties. This form provides the admissible evidence the Court needs to enter a Decree without requiring the parties to attend a hearing.
- C. Fill out a Decree of Divorce (with Children). This form will need to be filled out completely, signed by both you and the Defendant and both of your signatures must be notarized. In addition to signing the Decree, you should also initial each page of the Decree to verify that each page contains the terms you agreed upon. Here are some important laws and helpful hints in completing the Decree of Divorce:
 - Custody and Visitation. You and the Defendant need to determine which custody and visitation plan will apply in your circumstances. It is unusual for the Court not to award any visitation or supervised visitation to the non-custodial parent.
 - o If there is a concern that your child(ren) may be harmed by the other parent physically and/or emotionally, you should seek advice from someone familiar with parenting and child development issues. There may be an organization in your community that can help facilitate visitation between the children and you or the other parent. You can also contact the facilitators of any parenting classes in your community for other ideas.

- Factors to be considered for awarding custody and visitation. The Decree of Divorce contains several options for custody and visitation arrangements. Ideally, both parents will work together to select the proper custody and visitation plan depending upon the family circumstances. In awarding custody and setting forth a visitation plan, Wyoming law requires that the Court consider the following factors:
 - 1. The geographic location of each parent;
 - 2. Each parent's willingness and ability to perform the child care duties associated with the child(ren), relative to the child(ren)'s stage of development such as feeding, changing, bathing, preparing the child(ren) for school, taking responsibility for the child(ren)'s homework, etc.;
 - 3. Each parent's ability to care for the child(ren)'s needs (consider not only historical involvement but a parent's willingness and ability to learn the necessary skills, as well);
 - 4. The lack of hostility between the parents;
 - 5. The ability of both parents' work schedules and the child(ren)'s schedule to accommodate extended access;
 - 6. The child(ren)'s age(s) and strength of attachment to each parent;
 - 7. The child(ren)'s relationship with his/her friends.
- Child(ren)'s interests should control. The use of a calendar for scheduling purposes is highly recommended. The parents' work schedules and the child(ren)'s school and extracurricular activities need to be considered when developing a visitation plan. This is especially true for those parents who do not enjoy a traditional work week. While visitation should be an enjoyable and enriching experience, it is an obligation and responsibility for each parent as well as a right and a privilege. Both parents must also have a good faith commitment to developing and carrying out a visitation plan. You need to focus on what type of schedule would be in the child(ren)'s best interest.
- Parenting classes. At any time, the Court may require parents to attend appropriate parenting classes, including, but not limited to, parenting classes to lessen the effects of divorce on children. Both parents are generally required to attend classes when they are ordered. If the class is ordered, you MUST file a Certificate of Completion with the Clerk's office. This certificate is provided by the class instructor.
- Child Support Payments. You will need to determine the amount of child support due based upon the Confidential Financial Affidavits you and the Defendant completed (or by the Affidavit of Imputed Income if the Defendant did not complete his/her own Confidential Financial Affidavit). You may use the Child Support Computation Form as a guide to help you calculate the support due or contact your local child support enforcement agency for assistance. Another option is to go online to:

https://childsupport.wyoming.gov/calculator/index.html to calculate child support.

- ➤ You CANNOT agree that no support will be paid. Wyoming law allows for a reduced amount of support when you agree on joint physical custody, each parent keeps the child(ren) overnight for more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the year, and both parents contribute substantially to the expenses of the children in addition to the payment of child support.
- ➤ If the difference between the noncustodial parent's net income and the self-support reserve is less than the support obligation as calculated from the tables in 20-2-304(a), the support obligation shall be set using the difference between the noncustodial parent's net income and the self-support reserve. "Self-support reserve" means the current poverty line for one (1) person as specified by the poverty guidelines updated periodically in the Federal Register by the United States department of health and human services under the authority of 42 U.S.C. 9902(2). See W.S. § 20-2-304(f).
- ➤ There are NO DEVIATIONS from the presumed support allowed UNLESS the Court CHOOSES to deviate from the set amount because the amount was unjust or inappropriate in the particular case. The Court must include the specific reasons for deviation in the Decree of Divorce.
- NO AGREEMENTS FOR LESS THAN THE PRESUMED SUPPORT CAN BE APPROVED IF GOVERNMENT OR STATE BENEFITS (SUCH AS TITLE 19, KID CARE, FOOD STAMPS, POWER, ETC.) ARE BEING PROVIDED ON BEHALF OF ANY CHILD. This means the Court cannot lower the amount of child support calculated by using the net income of you and the Defendant even if you and the Defendant agree to a lower amount of support.
- Medical Support. The law requires that medical support for the child(ren) be included as part of any child support order. The Court shall order either or both of the parents to provide medical support if insurance can be obtained at a reasonable cost and the benefits under the insurance policy are accessible to the children. This may include dental, optical or other health care needs for the child(ren). In addition, the Court will order that any medical expenses not covered by insurance and any deductible amount on the required insurance coverage be paid by one or both parents. If both parents are ordered to pay for expenses not covered by insurance, the Court will specify the proportion for which each parent is responsible (for example, 50% to Plaintiff and 50% to Defendant).

- D. Fill out an Order for Income Withholding. The Court is required by statute to enter an Order for Income Withholding in every case where child support has been ordered.
- E. Fill out an Income Withholding for Support. This form is required if you need to have the child support paid directly from a non-custodial parent's employer. If you need assistance in filling out this form, or if you need assistance in collecting child support, you should contact the child support enforcement agency in your district. The Clerk can provide you with the agency's contact information.
- F. Other Forms: Other forms may be required depending on the county where your case is filed. Ask the Clerk if additional forms are required before your Decree of Divorce will be entered.
- G. Copies and Envelopes. Take an original and two (2) copies of each of the above documents for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant). A copy of any documents that you file (other than the Decree of Divorce) must be sent to the Defendant on the date that you filled out on the Certificate of Service on each document.
 - ➤ If a hearing is not required by your Court, the Clerk will mail a copy of your Decree of Divorce if accepted by the Court.
 - ➤ If a hearing is required by your Court, follow the next steps:
- H. Hearing. In some Courts, a hearing is required before the Judge will sign the Decree of Divorce. If this is the case, you will need to request a hearing by completing the Request for Setting. If you have reached an agreement, check the box that states that the parties have reached an agreement. Indicate how much time you will need for the hearing (usually 15 minutes if there is an agreement). You will file the Order Setting Hearing with the Clerk's office, and the Court will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the Defendant. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Defendant to the Clerk. These documents are additional forms that are contained in your packet.
- I. Evidence. At the hearing, you will need to tell the Judge that either 1) you or your spouse have lived in Wyoming for at least 60 days immediately before you filed the Complaint for Divorce, or 2) you and your spouse were married in Wyoming and at least one of you has lived in Wyoming ever since. You will also need to tell the Judge about irreconcilable differences in the marriage (why you want a divorce), and why the settlement you reached (who gets what) is fair.

Give the Decree of Divorce to the Judge. The Judge may ask you questions. The Judge will not guide you through the hearing, tell you how to proceed or advise you on the law.

Family Law Information and Instructions for Divorce (With Children)

Effective: July 1, 2023.

Following the hearing, the Judge will make any necessary changes to the Decree of Divorce and will sign it.

J. When will your divorce become final? Your divorce will not be final until the Judge signs the Decree of Divorce and it is filed with the Clerk. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Decree. You must verify with the Clerk that the Decree of Divorce has been file-stamped before you can be sure your divorce is final.

Summary of Option A: If you and the Defendant agree on all issues in the divorce and the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, complete the following:

Remember: Take an original and two copies of each document to file with the Clerk's office. You will need to send a copy of any filed document to the Defendant unless otherwise stated below.

- 1. Confidential Financial Affidavit;
- 2. Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties;
- 3. Order for Income Withholding;
- 4. Income Withholding for Support (or, you can open up a case with your local child support enforcement agency);
- 5. Decree of Divorce (with Children)
 - Take an original and two (2) copies of the Decree of Divorce for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant);
- 6. Complete and file any additional documents required by your Court;
- 7. If your Court requires a hearing before entering a Decree of Divorce, then you will also need to file and do the following:
 - Request for Setting
 - Order Setting Hearing
 - Take an original and two (2) copies of the Order Setting Hearing for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Order Setting Hearing to you and the Defendant);
 - Attend the Hearing.

Your divorce is final when the Decree of Divorce has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

Option B. If the Defendant does not file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, obtain a default divorce by following these steps:

- A. Default Divorce. After the required waiting period has expired, you may obtain what is referred to as a divorce by default if the Defendant does NOT file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim to the Complaint for Divorce.
- B. Necessary forms. Fill out and sign the Application for Entry of Default and Affidavit in Support of Default. Take an original and two (2) copies of these documents to the Clerk and the blank Entry of Default. If your paperwork is correct, the Clerk will sign the Entry of Default. These are additional forms that are contained in your packet.

- C. Additional Documents. After the Entry of Default is signed by the Clerk, complete Step 6, Option A, items A through G above. MAKE SURE TO MARK "DEFAULT" ON THE DECREE.
- D. Default Hearing. Some Courts will not enter a Default Decree of Divorce unless there is a hearing. Ask the Clerk if this is required for your Court. If it is, fill out a Request for Setting and request 15 minutes for the hearing. You will file the Order Setting Hearing with the Clerk's office, and the Court will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the Defendant. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Defendant to the Clerk.
- E. Evidence. At the hearing, you will need to tell the Judge that either 1) you or your spouse have lived in Wyoming for at least 60 days immediately before you filed the Complaint for Divorce, or 2) you and your spouse were married in Wyoming and at least one of you has lived in Wyoming ever since. You will also need to tell the Judge about irreconcilable differences in the marriage (why you want a divorce), and why the settlement you reached (who gets what) is fair.

Give the Decree of Divorce to the Judge. The Judge may ask you questions. The Judge will not guide you through the hearing, tell you how to proceed or advise you on the law. Following the hearing, the Judge will make any necessary changes to the Decree of Divorce and will sign it.

F. When will your divorce become final? Your divorce will not be final until the Judge signs the Decree of Divorce and it is filed with the Clerk. This may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Decree. You must verify with the Clerk that the Decree of Divorce has been file-stamped before you can be sure your divorce is final. The time limit to appeal a decree begins to run from the day the Decree of Divorce is filed with the Clerk's office.

Summary of Option B: If the Defendant did NOT file an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim, complete the following:

Remember: Take an original and two copies of each document to file with the Clerk's office. You will need to send a copy of any filed document to the Defendant unless otherwise stated below.

- 1. Application for Entry of Default
- 2. Affidavit in Support of Default
- 3. Entry of Default (Clerk will sign if your paperwork is correct)
- 4. Confidential Financial Affidavit
- 5. Affidavit for Divorce Without Appearance of Parties
- 6. Order for Income Withholding
- 7. Income Withholding for Support (or, you can open up a case with your local child support enforcement agency)
- 8. Decree of Divorce (with Children) MAKE SURE TO MARK "DEFAULT" ON THE DECREE.
 - Take an original and two (2) copies of the Decree of Divorce for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant).

Family Law Information and Instructions for Divorce (With Children)

- 9. Complete and file any additional documents required by your Court.
- 10. If your Court requires a hearing before entering a Decree of Divorce, then you will also need to file and do the following:
 - Request for Setting
 - Order Setting Hearing
 - Take an original and two (2) copies of the Order Setting Hearing for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Order Setting Hearing to you and the Defendant).
 - Attend the Hearing

Your divorce is final when the Decree of Divorce has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

Option C. If the Defendant Answers or Answers and Counterclaims, and you and the Defendant do NOT agree on all issues of your divorce, you will need to have a trial:

- A. You must file a Reply to the Counterclaim. If the Defendant has filed an Answer and Counterclaim for a divorce, you will have a time limit (usually 20 days) to file a written response (Reply to Counterclaim) to the counterclaim. The original, signed copy of your reply must be filed with the Clerk and a copy must be sent to the Defendant (or his/her attorney).
 - Caution: If you do not file the original Reply to Counterclaim with the Clerk within the time allowed, the Defendant can seek a default divorce against you and may get what he/she asked for in his/her counterclaim.
- B. Trial. If there is no agreement, your case will have to be heard and decided by a Judge at a trial.
 - Caution: It is strongly recommended that you hire or find an attorney to represent you at trial, though you may represent yourself. You proceed at your own risk and will be expected to know the laws.
- C. Request a trial date. You will need to request a hearing by completing a Request for Setting. Write in "trial" where it asks the type of hearing. Indicate how much time you think it will take for you and the other party to present your evidence and write that in (usually one (1) to three (3) hours). You also need to decide whether or not you want a Court reporter to record the proceeding. SEE BELOW FOR DETAILS ON GETTING A COURT REPORTER. If a hearing is not recorded by an official court reporter, a transcript of the hearing will not be available. It is very difficult to appeal the Judge's decision if you do not get a Court reporter to take down everything that is said at the trial.
 - You must file the Request for Setting and the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements with the Clerk's office, and the Court will fill in the hearing date and time and mail a copy to you and the other party. You will need to provide an addressed, stamped envelope for you and the Defendant to the Clerk. Both the Request for Setting and the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements are additional forms contained in your packet.

- D. Pretrial Disclosures. Both parties must provide to the other party AND PROMPTLY FILE WITH THE COURT the Pretrial Disclosures regarding the evidence that it may present at trial. If you have questions, you should contact an attorney.
 - ➤ When are the Pretrial Disclosures due? Unless otherwise directed by the Court, these disclosures must be made at least 30 days before trial.
 - Take the original and two (2) copies to the Clerk for filing. Keep one copy for your records and send the other copy to the Defendant (or his/her attorney).
- E. Settlement before trial. In the event that your case settles before the trial, you must present the Court with the completed and signed Decree of Divorce before the Court will take the trial off of the schedule. There will be no continuances or canceling of the trial date based on telephone calls. If you need a continuance, you should contact an attorney for assistance in seeking one.
- F. Court reporter. If you wish to have a court reporter you shall provide notice to the official court reporter as soon as possible, but no later than three (3) working days before the matter is set for hearing. You can provide notice to the court reporter by phone or by submitting a written request. Please note that if providing notice through the mail, the request must be received by the court reporter no later than three working days prior to the hearing. The Clerk will be able to inform you which court reporter to contact. The three-day notice requirement will not be waived by the Court. The notice is required for all civil matters including jury trials.
- G. Evidence and witnesses. At the hearing, you will need to present your evidence and witnesses. If the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requesting Pretrial Statements is entered (signed by the Judge), you must follow the terms and provide the Court with the information requested in that document, including copies of exhibits you want to introduce at the trial and a list of your proposed witnesses and what their testimony is going to be about within the time frame ordered (usually 3 to 5 days prior to the trial). Under the law, the Judge cannot help you or assist you at trial. You are on your own without an attorney.
- H. Final Decision (Decree of Divorce). Following the trial, the Judge will make a decision or may take the matter under advisement, meaning he or she will need to think further before making a determination. If the Judge instructs you, you must take that decision and type it into the Decree of Divorce incorporating the Judge's decision.
 - > You are again reminded that, if you choose to continue without an attorney, you are expected to know what to do and how to do it. The Judge will not guide you through the trial/hearing, tell you how to proceed, or advise you on the law.

- ➤ You MUST also file the documents outlined in Step 6, Option A, items A and C through G above.
- I. When will your divorce become final? Your divorce will not be final until the Judge signs the Decree of Divorce and it is filed with the Clerk of Court. This process may take time if the Judge requires changes to the proposed Decree. You must verify with the Clerk's office that the Decree of Divorce has been file-stamped before you can be sure your divorce is final. The time limit to appeal a decree begins to run from the day the Decree of Divorce is filed with the Clerk's office.

Summary of Option C: If the Defendant filed an Answer or Answer and Counterclaim and you do NOT agree on the issues, complete the following:

Remember: Take an original and two copies of each document to file with the Clerk's office. You will need to send a copy of any filed document to the Defendant unless otherwise stated below.

- 1. If the Defendant filed an Answer and Counterclaim, file a Reply to the Counterclaim within 20 days after you receive the Answer and Counterclaim.
- 2. Request a trial date
 - a. Request for Setting
 - b. Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements
 - c. Take an original and two (2) copies of the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Order Setting Divorce Trial and Requiring Pretrial Statements to you and the Defendant)
- 3. File your Pretrial Disclosures and Pretrial Memorandum
- 4. No later than 3 working days before the trial, request a court reporter, if desired
- 5. Attend the Trial
- 6. Decree of Divorce (with Children)
 - a. Take an original and two (2) copies of the Decree of Divorce for filing with the Clerk and two (2) addressed, stamped envelopes (one addressed to you and one to the Defendant with enough postage to cover the cost of mailing the Decree of Divorce to you and the Defendant)
- 7. Order for Income Withholding
- 8. Income Withholding for Support (or, you can open up a case with your local child support enforcement agency)
- 9. Complete and file any additional documents required by your Court.

Your divorce is final when the Decree of Divorce has been signed by the Judge and filed by the Clerk.

INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTORNEYS OR PRO SE LITIGANTS COMPLETING THE CIVIL COVER SHEET

Authority for Civil Cover Sheet

The civil cover sheet and the information contained herein neither replaces nor supplements the filings and service of pleadings or other papers as required by law. This form, approved by the Wyoming Supreme Court, is required for the use of the Clerk of Court for the purpose of initiating the civil docket sheet. Consequently, a civil cover sheet is submitted to the Clerk of Court for each civil case filed. The attorney or pro se litigant filing a case should complete the form as follows:

- I. Caption. Enter names of the plaintiff and defendant and the address for the plaintiff. If the plaintiff or defendant is a government agency, use only the full name or standard abbreviations. If the plaintiff or defendant is an official within a governmental agency, identify first the agency and then the official, giving both name and title.
- II. Nature of Suit. Place an "X" in the appropriate box. ONE AND ONLY ONE BOX SHOULD BE CHECKED. If the nature of suit cannot be determined, because the cause of action fits more than one nature of suit, select the most determinative. Some descriptions may require clarification. See below:

Contract Subtypes

Business Organization Litigation (Corporate, Partnership or L.L.C. dissolution or accounting)

Contract Other (not debt collection) (including Specific Performance but not Wrongful Termination)

Property Subtypes

INITIAL DISCLOSURES

The following initial disclosures are submitted by the Plaintiff pursuant to Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1.1). This information is required in all divorce proceedings to the extent that the information pertains to a particular claim or defense in the action. This information must be made available to the opposing party's attorney (or the opposing party if he or she does not have an attorney) within thirty (30) days after the Defendant's Answer to the Complaint for Divorce is required to be served. For any of the following disclosures that do not pertain to you, write "not applicable" on the appropriate schedule.

- 1. A schedule of financial assets owned individually or jointly, such as savings or checking accounts, stocks, bonds, cash or cash equivalents, including the name and address of the depository, the date such account was established, the type of account, the account number, the current value of the account, and whether the account is acknowledged to be a marital asset or asserted to be a non-marital asset and, if asserted to be a non-marital asset, an explanation of the legal and factual basis for such assertion. (See attached Schedule of Financial Assets.)
- 2. A schedule of non-financial assets, such as personal or real property (i.e. house, land, vehicles, household items, etc.) owned individually or jointly, including the purchase price and the date of purchase or acquiring the property, the present market value, any indebtedness relating to such asset, the state of record ownership, the current location of the asset, whether Initial Disclosures

purchased from marital assets or obtained by gift or inheritance, and whether acknowledged to be a marital asset or asserted to be a non-marital asset and, if asserted to be a non-marital asset, an explanation of the legal and factual basis for such assertion. (See attached Schedule of Non-

Financial Assets.)

3. A schedule of all debts owed individually or jointly, identifying the date any obligation was incurred, the spouse in whose name the debt was incurred, the present amount of all debts and monthly payments, the use to which the money was put which caused the debt to arise, identification of any asset which serves as security for such debt, and an acknowledgement of whether each debt is a marital or non-marital debt, and if asserted to be a non-marital debt, an explanation of the legal and factual basis for such assertion. (See attached Schedule of Debts.)

4. A schedule of safe deposit boxes, including the name and address of the institution where the box is located, the box number, the name and address of the individual(s) who has access to the box, an inventory of the contents, and the value of the assets located therein. (See attached Schedule of Safety Deposit Boxes.)

5. A schedule of employment, including the name and address of your employer; gross monthly wage; payroll deduction(s), specifically identifying the type and amount; the amount of other benefits including transportation, employer contributions to health care, and employer contributions to retirement accounts; and outstanding bonuses. (See attached Schedule of Employment.)

6. A schedule of all other sources of income, including the name and address of the source and the amount and date the income was received. (See attached Schedule of Other Income.)

7. A schedule of all retirement accounts or benefits, including the name and address of the institution holding the accounts or benefits, the present value if readily ascertainable, the initial date of any account, the expected payment upon retirement and the specific retirement date, and the value of the account at the date of the marriage if the account existed prior to marriage. (See attached Schedule of Retirement Accounts or Benefits.)

Initial Disclosures Effective: July 1, 2023. 8. If seeking custody, or a change in custody, set forth the facts believed to support your claim of superior entitlement to custody. In addition, as to a change of custody, set forth the facts comprising a substantial change in circumstances and disclose any supporting documentation. (See attached Schedule of Custody.)

9. NOTE: Supplementation of disclosures and responses. Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1): A party who has made a disclosure or responded to a request for discovery

with a disclosure or response is under a duty to supplement or correct the disclosure or response

to include information thereafter acquired, if ordered by the court or in the following circumstances:

A party is under a duty to supplement, at appropriate intervals, its disclosures if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

A NOTE ABOUT MARITAL vs. NON-MARITAL ASSETS AND DEBTS

In the following tables you will be asked to distinguish marital property/debt from non-marital (separate) property/debt. Marital property/debt will be divided between you and your spouse as part of the divorce; non-marital property/debt usually will not be divided (depending on the situation).

The general rule is that marital property and debt is any property or debt acquired during the marriage for the benefit of the marriage, regardless of who paid for it or whose name is on it. However, just because a party acquired property before marriage does not necessarily mean that it won't be considered marital property. A spouse's premarital separate property can become marital when a married couple demonstrates an intent, through their words or actions during marriage, to treat one spouse's separate property as marital property. Gifts and inheritances are generally separate property, although gifts for the benefit of the marriage, such as a dishwasher, may be considered marital property.

"During the marriage" generally means from the time of marriage until the time of separation.

People often dispute what property/debt is marital or how long the marriage lasted. When this happens, you are urged to consult with an attorney to learn about the various legal arguments that may be available to you.

If you want to read more about divorce and property division, you can review that information here, http://equaljustice.wyo.gov.

"Income" means any form of payment or return in money or in kind to an individual, regardless of source. Income includes, but is not limited to wages, earnings, salary, commission, compensation as an independent contractor, temporary total disability, permanent partial disability and permanent total disability worker's compensation payments, unemployment compensation, disability, annuity and retirement benefits, and any other payments made by any payor, but shall not include any earnings derived from overtime work unless the court, after considering all overtime earnings derived in the preceding twenty-four (24) month period, determines the overtime earnings can reasonably be expected to continue on a consistent basis. In determining income, all reasonable unreimbursed legitimate business expenses shall be deducted. Means tested sources of income such as Pell grants, aid under the personal opportunities with employment responsibilities (POWER) program, food stamps and supplemental security income (SSI) shall not be considered as income. Gross income also means potential income of parents who are voluntarily unemployed or underemployed.

"Net income" means income as defined in the box above, less personal income taxes, social security deductions, cost of dependent health care coverage for all dependent children, actual payments being made under preexisting support orders for current support of other children, other court-ordered support obligations currently being paid and mandatory pension deductions. Payments towards child support arrearage shall not be deducted to arrive at net income.

In accordance with W.S. § 20-2-304(f), if the difference between the noncustodial parent's net income and the self-support reserve is less than the support obligation as calculated from the tables above, the support obligation shall be set using the difference between the noncustodial parent's net income and the self-support reserve. "Self-support reserve" means the current poverty line for one (1) person as specified by the poverty guidelines updated periodically in the Federal Register by the United States department of health and human services under the authority of 42 U.S.C. 9902(2). See Table D on page 3.

DO NOT FILE WITH CONFIDENTIAL FINANCIAL AFFIDAVIT. FOR COMPUTATION PURPOSES ONLY. EFFECTIVE JULY 1, 2023.

Depending on the details of the custody arrangement, the parties may need to complete more than one table to calculate child support. Please read through the instructions for each table carefully. A secure child support calculator can also be found at: https://childsupport.wyoming.gov/calculator/index.html.

NOTE: If the custody of the children is shared or split as defined under Wyo. Stat. § 20-2-304 (c) and (d) other formulas apply. If "split" (meaning each parent has physical custody of at least one (1) child), the amount shall be allocated to each parent based upon the number of those children in the physical custody of that parent (see Table C on page 3). If "shared" (meaning each parent has actual overnight custody of the children for a certain percentage of time), the amount will be allocated based on the percentage of time (Table B below).

B. SHARED PHYSICAL CUSTODY: Wyo. Stat. § 20-2-304 (c) provides for special support computation of support when each parent keeps the children overnight for more than twenty-five percent (25%) of the year and both parents contribute substantially to the expenses of the children in addition to the payment of child support. If this is the custodial arrangement, support may be computed as follows assuming all other statutory provisions apply.
8.	a) Percent of year children will reside overnight with Plaintiff/Petitioner	%	b) percent of year children reside overnight with Defendant/Respondent	n will %

C. SPLIT CUSTODY: Wyo. Stat. §20-2-304 (d) provides for special computations of support when each parent has physical custody of at least one (1) child. In such cases the support should be computed as follows:
12.	Shared responsibility child support per child: Line 4 ÷ Total children of parents.	$
13.	Plaintiff's/Petitioner's support obligation for children in custody of Defendant/Respondent: Line 1/Line 3 x Number of children with Defendant/Respondent x Line 12	$
14.	Defendant/Respondent's support obligation for children in custody of Plaintiff/Petitioner: Line 2/Line 3 x Number of children with Plaintiff/Petitioner x Line 12	$
15.	MONTHLY SUPPORT DUE: The difference between lines 13 and 14 represents the net monthly support due from the parent having the greater support obligation.	$

D. SELF-SUPPORT RESERVE COMPUTATION: Wyo. Stat. § 20-2-304 (f) provides for special computation of support when the difference between the obligor's net income and the self-support reserve is less than the support obligation as calculated using the support tables for presumptive support on page 1. In such cases, the support should be computed as follows:
16.	Net income of the obligor or parent paying support	$
17.	Self-Support Reserve: Find the current "self-support reserve" by going to the Family Law Forms at www.courts.state.wy.us/legal-assistances-and-forms/court-self-help-forms/ . Enter the number provided.	$
18.	Subtract line 17 from line 16.	$
19.	If the amount on line 18 is less than the child support due as calculated on line 7 of Table A, line 11 of Table B, or line 15 of Table C, then line 18 is the monthly child support obligation . Enter the amount here.	$
	If the amount on line 18 is more than line 7 of Table A, line 11 of Table B, or line 15 of Table C, then skip to line 20.
20.	If the amount on line 18 is more than the child support due as calculated on line 7 of Table A, line 11 of Table B, or line 15 of Table C, then the child support calculated on line 7 of Table A, line 11 of Table B, or line 15 of Table C is the monthly child support obligation . Enter the amount here.	$

- 1. Personal data and history relevant to the issues, including name, age, prior marriages, if any, children (use children's initials only), present living situation of the parties and their immediate family. For instance, where each party and the children are residing, with whom the children are residing, and how the children are being cared for during the day. This item calls for a brief but comprehensive statement of the party's personal history as it may relate to the divorce litigation.
- 2. Present employment, including identity and location of employer, nature of the job, length of employment, gross and net income and benefits, including health and accident coverage, if any, its convertibility to non-group plan in event of loss of employment, terms of retirement program, all deductions from salary or wages, and prospects for the continuation of the employment.
- 3. Employment history and employability, including previous employment and incomes, education, training and work experience affecting employability. Include any other factors substantially affecting employability.
- 4. Other income, whatever the source.
- 5. All assets showing source of the asset (i.e., jointly purchased, gift prior to marriage), present value, basis of statement of value and statement of present salability. (Use the last 4 digits of any financial account numbers only.)
- 6. Liabilities, including amount, source, terms of the indebtedness.
- 7. Any other information which counsel, or the party, believe to be material to the determination of the issues.

SECTION "B" STATEMENT OF COUNSEL

Statement of the case by counsel of the client's position with respect to:

- 1. Division of assets and allocation of liabilities.
- 2. Amount of child support:
 - a. Amount called for by the child support guidelines;
- b. Why, if it is urged, there should be departure from the guidelines.
- 3. If alimony is claimed, the basis of the claim and the amount and duration proposed by the party.
- 4. If client claims exclusive or superior entitlement to "the divorce," the reasons for that position.
- 5. If superior suitability for primary custody of children is claimed and disputed, reasons for the claim.
- 6. Reasons, if any, for departure from "standard rules for custody and visitation."
- 7. List of witnesses and specific summary of expected testimony.
- 8. Exhibits.

PRETRIAL DISCLOSURES

NOTE: Unless otherwise directed by the court, these disclosures must be made at least 30 days before trial. Within 14 days thereafter, unless a different time is specified by the court, a party may serve and promptly file with the Clerk of District Court a list disclosing (i) any objections to the use under Rule 32 (a) of a deposition designated by another party under Rule 26(a)(3)(B), and (ii) any objection, together with the grounds therefore, that may be made to the admissibility of materials identified under Rule 26(a)(3)(C). Objections not so disclosed, other than objections under Rules 402 and 403 of the Wyoming Rules of Evidence, are waived unless excused by the court for good cause.

Plaintiff submits the following initial disclosures, pursuant to Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(3), required in pretrial proceedings. This information must be made available to the opposing party or the opposing party's counsel and the Court at least thirty (30) days before the trial.

A. The name and, if not previously provided, the address and telephone number of each witness, separately identifying those whom the party expects to present and those whom the party may call if the need arises.

Pretrial Disclosures Effective: July 1, 2023. Page 1 of 4 B. The designation of those witnesses whose testimony is expected to be presented by means of a deposition and, if not taken stenographically (i.e. by a court reporter), a transcript of the pertinent portions of the deposition testimony.

C. An appropriate identification of each document or other exhibit, including summaries of other evidence, separately identifying those which the party expects to offer and those which the party may offer if the need arises.

NOTE: Supplementation of disclosures and responses. Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure

26(e)(1) states that: A party who has made a disclosure or responded to a request for discovery

with a disclosure or response is under a duty to supplement or correct the disclosure or response

to include information thereafter acquired, if ordered by the court or in the following

circumstances:

A party is under a duty to supplement at appropriate intervals, its disclosures if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.

Income withheld n	nust be paid to one of	the two following addresses:
Clerk of the District Court (see District Court Clerk packet):		OR State Disbursement Unit 2300 Capitol Ave. Hathaway Bldg., 5 th Floor, Suite A Cheyenne, WY 82002

DO NOT PAY BY PERSONAL CHECK. CASH ACCEPTED IN PERSON ONLY. CASHIER'S CHECKS AND MONEY ORDERS ACCEPTED.

The Clerk or SDU shall promptly forward the support payments to the receiving parent at the address provided by that parent. Each party shall pay, when due, all fees charged to that party by the Clerk of District Court, State Disbursement Unit, and any other agency statutorily authorized to charge a fee.

Order for Income Withholding Effective: July 1, 2023.

OR
	Pursuant to Wyo. Stat. § 20-6-204, this order for income withholding is not subject to imme	ediate activation because either:
	Both parties have agreed in writing to an alternative arrangement. (When the parties agree to an alternative arrangement, the arrangement shall be in writing, signed by the parties and reviewed and entered in the record by the court.)
	OR
	The Court finds there is good cause not to require the immediate activation of an order for income withholding because: (The court shall include in the record its findings of good cause, including a statement explaining why implementation of immediate income withholding would not be in the best interests of the child and, in cases involving modification of child support, proof of timely payments.)

Any order for income withholding not subject to immediate activation shall become effective upon the date the Obligor requests withholding commence; or the date the Obligor becomes delinquent in payment of an amount equal to one (1) month's support obligation under the support order as set forth in Wyo. Stat. § 20-6-205.

IT IS FURTHER ORDERED that upon receipt of a notice of Income Withholding for Support, every employer or other person now or in the future owing income to the Obligor shall comply with all terms of the notice and shall withhold a portion of the Obligor's income and remit it to the Clerk at the address in the Income Withholding for Support form.

For purposes of this order: "INCOME" means any form of periodic payment or return in money to an individual, regardless of source. Income includes, but is not limited to wages, earnings, salary, commission, compensation as an independent contractor, temporary total disability and permanent partial disability, worker's compensation payments, unemployment compensation, disability, annuity and retirement benefits, and any other payment made by any payor.

Furthermore, no employer may discharge, discipline, refuse employment to, or otherwise penalize an Obligor because of this Order for Income Withholding or a subsequently issued Income Withholding for Support form.

Order for Income Withholding Effective: July 1, 2023.

V. Remittance Information: (Completed by the Sender except for the "Return to Sender" check box.)

If the employee/obligor's principal place of employment is later than the first pay period that occurs days after the date of of the order/notice. Send payment within business days of the pay date. If you cannot withhold the full amount of support for any or all orders for this employee/obligor, withhold % of disposable income for all orders. If the employee/obligor's principal place of employment is not (State/Tribe), obtain withholding limitations, time requirements, the appropriate method to allocate among multiple child support cases/orders and any allowable employer fees from the jurisdiction of the employee/obligor's principal place of employment.

State-specific withholding limit information is available at www.acf.hhs.gov/css/resource/state-income-withholding-contacts-and-program-requirements. For tribe-specific contacts, payment addresses, and withholding limitations, please contact the tribe at www.acf.hhs.gov/sites/default/files/programs/css/tribal-agency-contacts-printable-pdf.pdf or www.bia.gov/tribalmap/DataDotGovSamples/tld map.html.

You may not withhold more than the lesser of: 1) the amounts allowed by the Federal Consumer Credit Protection Act (CCPA) [15 USC §1673 (b)]; or 2) the amounts allowed by the law of the state of the employee/obligor's principal place of employment if the place of employment is in a state; or the tribal law of the employee/obligor's principal place of employment if the place of employment is under tribal jurisdiction. The CCPA is available at www.dol.gov/sites/dolgov/files/WHD/legacy/files/garn01.pdf. If the Order Information section does not indicate that the arrears are greater than 12 weeks, then the employer should calculate the CCPA limit using the lower percentage.

If there is more than one IWO against this employee/obligor and you are unable to fully honor all IWOs due to federal, state, or tribal withholding limits, you must honor all IWOs to the greatest extent possible, giving priority to current support before payment of any past-due support.

If the obligor is a nonemployee, obtain withholding limits from the Supplemental Information section in this IWO. This information is also available at www.acf.hhs.gov/css/resource/state-income-withholding-contacts-and-program-requirements.
