Civil Action Case No. _____

INITIAL DISCLOSURES

The following initial disclosures are submitted by the Respondent pursuant to Wyoming Rule of Civil Procedure 26(a)(1.2)(A). In custody and support actions where the parties are not married, the following initial disclosures are required in original proceedings and in modification proceedings to the extent that the information pertains to a particular claim or defense in the action. This information must be made available to the opposing party's attorney (or the opposing party if he or she does not have an attorney) within thirty (30) days after the Respondent's Response to the Petition to Establish Custody, Visitation and Child Support is required to be served. For any of the following disclosures that do not pertain to you, write "not applicable" on the appropriate schedule.

1. If seeking custody, or a change in custody, set forth the facts believed to support your claim of superior entitlement to custody. (See attached Schedule-A Custody.)

2. NOTE: *Supplementation of disclosures and responses. Wyoming Rules of Civil Procedure 26(e)(1): A party who has made a disclosure or responded to a request for discovery with a disclosure or response is under a duty to supplement or correct the disclosure or response to include information thereafter acquired, if ordered by the court or in the following circumstances:

A party is under a duty to supplement, at appropriate intervals, its disclosures if the party learns that in some material respect the information disclosed is incomplete or incorrect and if the additional or corrective information has not otherwise been made known to the other parties during the discovery process or in writing.
