

Steps for Wyoming Court Interpreter Registration

- 1) You must complete the court interpreter interest form. The interest form is available on the Court Interpreters page of the Wyoming Judicial Branch website <http://www.courts.state.wy.us/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Court-Interpreter-Interest-Form-031721.pdf>.
- 2) You must attend the 2-day Wyoming Court Interpreter Orientation Seminar. The Court Interpreter Program will offer these seminars virtually throughout the year.
- 3) You must take and pass a written test, in English, covering basic interpreter ethics, professionalism, interpreting skills, court procedure, and legal terminology with a score of 80% or higher. The test will be given at the end of each seminar. You will not be allowed to take the test unless you have attended the seminar.
- 4) Once you have passed the written test, you must schedule an Oral Proficiency Interview (OPI) in your interpreting language. The interview is conducted over the phone and lasts approximately 30 minutes. The cost of this interview is $145. You may take the interview more than once; however, there is a 90-day waiting period and the fee is charged for each test. You must obtain a score of advanced-mid within 1 year of attending the Wyoming Court Interpreter Orientation Seminar. More information on the OPI will be handed out during the orientation seminar.
- 5) When the court has received your passing score, you will be added to the roster of registered interpreters to be posted on the Wyoming Judicial Branch website: <http://www.courts.state.wy.us/wp-content/uploads/2021/03/Interpreter-Roster-1.29.21.pdf>.
You will now be eligible for the higher rate of pay for “registered” interpreters. *

*You may waive the written and oral exams if you are “Certified” in another jurisdiction. You must submit your paperwork regarding certification, preferably with your application. Upon verification of your certification and completion of the seminar, you will be added to our “Certified” roster and eligible for the highest rate of pay. **
