

IN THE SUPREME COURT, STATE OF WYOMING

April Term, A.D. 2021

In the Matter of the Extension to January 12, 2022) of the Wyoming Supreme Court's Emergency) Orders Regarding COVID-19 Pandemic)

ORDER EXTENDING COVID-19 EMERGENCY ORDER
ADOPTING PROCEDURES FOR REMOTE ADMINISTRATION OF OATHS AND WITNESSES, VERIFICATION OF GUILTY PLEAS,
AND FOR PAPER FILINGS TO JANUARY 12, 2022

This matter came before the Court on its own motion. The Wyoming Supreme Court entered its March 26, 2020 COVID-19 Emergency Order Adopting Procedures for Remote Administration of Oaths and Witnesses, Verification of Guilty Pleas, and for Paper Filings. It extended those Orders in response to continuing demands. Now, in light of the nationwide and statewide continuation of public health restrictions to respond to the COVID-19 pandemic, the Wyoming Supreme Court, under Article V, Section 2 of the Wyoming Constitution, in the exercise of its inherent powers, enters this Order to extend the duration of the March 26, 2020 Order, as modified by the September 22, 2020 Order Extending, which shall remain in effect until January 12, 2022.

DATED this 16th day of September, 2021.

BY THE COURT:

/s/

KATE M. FOX
Chief Justice