Section 2. Payroll and Work Hours.

Payday. Judicial Branch employees are paid on the last working day of the month for hours worked within that month. Newly hired employees may experience some delay if complete information is not received by Human Resources or if the day of hire is after submission of the payroll for a given month.

Direct Deposit. Employees are encouraged to use direct deposit. Any employee who receives a check, rather than using direct deposit, may experience some minor delay in the receipt of the check.

(b) Payroll deductions.

Payroll deductions will be taken in accordance with Wyoming State Auditor's Office direction. Payroll deductions include but are not limited to Federal Income Taxes, Medicare, and Social Security, as well as health insurance premiums, retirement contributions and approved charity donations. Any court ordered or federally mandated payroll deductions will be processed in accordance with the order or mandate.

Improper Deductions. If an employee believes that an improper deduction has been taken from his or her pay, the employee should immediately report the deduction to Human Resources. The report will be promptly investigated and if it is found that an improper deduction has been made, the employee will be reimbursed accordingly.

(c) Employment classification.

To determine eligibility for benefits and overtime status, and to comply with federal and state laws and regulations, the Judicial Branch classifies its employees as indicated below. The Judicial Branch may review or change employee classifications at any time.

Exempt. Exempt employees are paid on a salaried basis and are not eligible to receive overtime compensation.

Nonexempt. Nonexempt employees are paid on a salary basis and are eligible to receive compensatory leave for overtime hours worked.

Regular, Full-time. Employees who work a minimum of forty (40) hours weekly and maintain continuous employment status. Generally, these employees are eligible for the benefits package and are subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefits program.

Regular, Part-Time. Employees who are regularly scheduled to work fewer than forty (40) hours weekly, and who maintain continuous employment status. Part-time employees are eligible for benefits offered by the Judicial Branch at a pro-rated rate and are subject to the terms, conditions, and limitations of each benefits program.

(d) Work week, hours of work and work schedules.

The standard workweek is from Saturday 12:00 a.m. until Friday 11:59 p.m. and generally consists of forty (40) work hours. Office hours are 8:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m., Monday through Friday.

Individual work schedules may vary depending on the needs of each court/division. Supervisors will advise employees of each employee's work schedule. Staffing needs and operational demands may necessitate variations in starting and ending times, as well as variations in the total hours that may be worked each day and week.

An employee may be allowed one (1) fifteen (15) minute break (also referred to as a rest period) for each four (4) hour work period. Breaks shall be scheduled with approval of the employee's supervisor to ensure adequate coverage of job functions. Breaks shall be counted towards hours worked. Breaks will be scheduled when possible. Missed breaks are forfeited.

Breaks shall not be:

- (1) Included in starting/ending workday periods;
- (2) Taken consecutively or included in the computation of meal periods; or
- (3) Extended beyond fifteen (15) minutes. Taking off more than the allotted break time, fifteen (15) minutes, is not allowed. If an employee takes an extended break, and the extended break was not authorized, he/she will not be paid for the additional time taken off for the break and will use leave as appropriate for the circumstances.

Breaks for Nursing Mothers. Nursing mothers may be allowed additional breaks as needed in accordance with the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA) and the PUMP Act. Additional breaks or breaks longer than twenty (20) minutes may be unpaid or require leave usage.

Meal periods should be scheduled with approval of the employee's supervisor to ensure adequate coverage of job functions. Employees shall take at least a half (1/2) hour meal period unless other work schedule has been agreed to by the employee's supervisor.

Meal periods are unpaid and shall not be included in the computation of the start or end of the workday. Meal periods shall be considered hours worked when a non-exempt employee performs any duties, whether active or inactive, while eating. It is not necessary that an employee be permitted to leave the premises if otherwise completely freed from duties during the meal period.

(g) Reimbursement for travel to and from work.

If an employee is required to travel away from his/her normal work area, such employee may be reimbursed for mileage regarding such travel. However, an employee will not be reimbursed for mileage for normal travel between a residence and work location, which is considered commuting time, nor will such time be considered hours worked.

(h) Travel Time.

In accordance with the Portal-to-Portal Act, non-exempt employees are eligible for compensation for the time they spend traveling from the usual work location to another location, including time spent as a passenger during their normal work hours. Nonexempt employees must record any time spent traveling as hours worked on their timesheet. Meal periods, sleeping periods and time spent on non-work-related activities is not work time and cannot be included as hours worked.

(i) Out-of-state travel.

Reimbursement for out-of-state travel shall comply with Wyo. Stat. Ann. §§ 9-3-102 and 9-3-103.

Out-of-state travel is limited to individuals who are in positions that would derive job-related benefit from such travel, and the purpose of travel must be directly related to, and benefit, that position.

Exceptions to these policies must be approved in writing by the Chief Justice for Supreme Court, Chancery Court, and Circuit Court employees and by a District Judge for exceptions applicable to his/her staff.

Section 3. Compensation and Benefits.

(a) Compensation Philosophy.

The Wyoming Judicial Branch (WJB) believes in paying employees a competitive salary based on relevant labor markets and service to the WJB over time. Our compensation philosophy is guided by principles of equity and fairness. Economic conditions, budget, and other practical considerations will necessarily affect the extent to which these principles can be applied.

(b) Job Evaluation.

Job Evaluation. The Judicial Branch uses the Hay Method of Job Evaluation. This evaluation method measures each job's requirements against the three key job content factors found in every job -- Know-How, Problem Solving, and Accountability.

- Know-How: The sum of every kind of skill, however acquired, required for fully competent job performance.
- Problem Solving: The original, self-starting thinking required by the job to identify, define, and resolve problems.
- Accountability: The measured effect of the job on end results.

Job descriptions are measured using these factors and points are assigned based on various components within each of these factors. The total of all points helps determine the appropriate pay grade for each position.

Request for Review. Classification reviews are requested when the duties and responsibilities of a position change due to major additions of job duties or responsibilities. A classification review can also be requested when the employee, Judicial Officer, or supervisor believes the employee is performing work at a classification level above their current classification. Requests are processed as specified in the Classification Review Request form. Employees must complete the Classification Review Request Form to start the review process.

(c) Salary Ranges.

Pay Ranges. Pay ranges for each pay grade are assigned based on the market pay ranges used by the State of Wyoming Executive Branch.

Hiring Rate. The Judicial Branch will establish a hiring range for each position starting at 90% of market, depending on budget availability, so long as the hiring range will not create pay inequities with existing employees. When determining a hiring rate, the Judicial Officer, or State Court Administrator (SCA) should consider the applicant's education, training, and/or work experience as it relates to the job.

Premium Pay. There may be some positions for which the market is paying a premium over others in the same job grade. Premium Pay is used to establish an appropriate pay range for a position where the market is paying above the established pay range for that grade level, as determined by the Hay Methodology.

Base Pay. Judicial Branch employees are paid a monthly salary based on a full-time or part-time status. Non-exempt employees receive additional compensation, which may be earned in the form of compensatory time, when they work more than their scheduled work hours.

Longevity Pay. Judicial Branch employees are eligible for longevity pay of forty dollars ($40) per month for each sixty (60) months (five (5) full years) of continuous State of Wyoming service. Longevity payments begin the month following the completion of sixty (60) months continuous service and will increase after each consecutive sixty (60) months of continuous service.

Housing Allowance. The Judicial Branch provides a housing allowance to areas of need as determined annually by the State of Wyoming Department of Administration and Information. Any adjustments to the housing allowance are effective July 1 of each year.

Overtime. The Judicial Branch follows the minimum wage and overtime requirements of the Fair Labor Standards Act (FLSA). Employees of the Judicial Branch who are not exempt from the overtime provisions of the FLSA are entitled to be compensated in the form of compensatory time for hours physically worked more than forty (40) hours per workweek at a rate of one and one-half (1½) hours for each overtime hour worked:

Prior Approval Required. All overtime for nonexempt staff must be approved in advance by the Chief Fiscal Officer and Judicial Officer or SCA for Supreme Court, chancery court, circuit court, and AOC employees or by the District Judge for district court employees, in accordance with the written overtime policy of each District Judge. Any paid leave such as sick leave, annual leave, administrative leave, an inclement weather day, or time off without pay does not apply toward hours worked. The employee must physically work forty (40) hours in the week before overtime is earned. Supervisors are strongly encouraged to alter a nonexempt employee's work schedule to avoid overtime.

Compensatory Time. Compensatory time is paid time off and is provided to nonexempt employees in lieu of overtime when the employee physically works more than 40 hours in the workweek. Compensatory time may also be earned on an hour-for-hour basis for nonexempt employees who work more hours than scheduled for a particular work week but work less than forty (40) hours. This must be approved in advance.

If circumstances arise concerning overtime compensation, which are not specifically addressed by this guidance, the employee should consult with his/her supervisor, the Human Resources Manager, or the Chief Fiscal Officer for clarification.

Special Pay.

Special pay includes bonuses and add-on pay. Requests must be approved by the WJC HR Committee, unless specified otherwise. These requests are subject to budget availability.

Bonuses. Regular pay increases may not be available to employees for exceptional performance or as an incentive for their continued employment with the Judicial Branch. As such, bonuses may be offered in varying amounts instead of additional salary. Types of bonuses approved include:

- Hiring bonuses. Offered to new hires as an incentive to join the Judicial Branch.
- Discretionary bonuses. Given to a particular employee at the discretion of a Judicial Officer or SCA to acknowledge efforts beyond the employee's normal responsibilities.
- Retention bonuses. Branch-wide bonuses approved by the WJC given as an incentive to retain Judicial Branch employees

Add-on Pay. At times, employees may be asked to do additional work outside their normal job duties for an extended period (one (1) or more months). Judicial Officers or the SCA may recommend additional monthly pay on a temporary basis to acknowledge these extra duties.

Legislative Approved Adjustments. Each legislative session, the legislature may appropriate funds to the Judicial Branch for pay increases. Allocation of these funds will be decided by the WJC, upon the HRC's recommendation, in accordance with the Judicial Branch pay philosophy.

Promotion. Employees moving to a job in a higher pay grade may receive a pay increase. Judicial Officers or the SCA should consider the employee's education, training, and/or work experience as it relates to the job as well as equity with other employees in the classification.

(f) Moving Expenses.

Judicial Officers or the SCA may pay for the actual expenses or a portion of the actual expenses of transporting household goods and effects, not to exceed $5,000. Employees moving to accept a position with the Judicial Branch or employees relocating to another court are eligible for this reimbursement. Judicial Officers or the SCA should consider moving distance and other factors that affect the cost of a move when determining an appropriate amount to offer. The moving expense will be deducted from the applicable court's budget.

The employee shall reimburse the court in full for all moving expenses if the employee does not remain employed by the Judicial Branch for one year. Reimbursements may be deducted from the employee's final paycheck.

(g) Annual training/ continuing education.

Law clerks and staff attorneys may annually attend either the Wyoming State Bar Meeting or another continuing education program upon Justice or Judge approval. Conference fees and travel cost for attending a program other than the Wyoming State Bar Meeting shall not exceed the cost of attending the Wyoming State Bar Meeting. During any year that the Wyoming State Bar Meeting is held in the position's local community, no travel costs will be allowed for attending an alternative program.

Other Supreme Court positions requiring certification may be reimbursed for continuing education if the certification is a requirement of the employee's position. Non-exempt employees must have approval for reimbursement and must record time spent at training or continuing education programs as hours worked.

(h) Professional Organization Fees.

Employees in positions requiring membership in a professional organization, such as membership in the Wyoming State Bar, will receive payment of dues annually to maintain membership. Employees are responsible for submitting invoices for dues payment to the Branch Fiscal office at least thirty (30) days prior to the due date.

(i) Worker's compensation.

Judicial Branch employees are covered by workers' compensation. Any on-the-job injury that an employee suffers should be immediately reported to a supervisor, and the supervisor shall assist the employee in submitting any resulting workers' compensation claim. The supervisor to whom an on-the-job injury is reported will then report that matter to Human Resources for payroll purposes and to provide assistance with the workers' compensation process. Information and guidance on filing a workers' compensation claim is available from the Workers' Compensation Division.

(j) Insurance coverage.

Eligible Judicial Branch employees may participate in term life insurance, retirement plans, and group health and accident insurance in accordance with the established State policies for employees. Optional dental insurance, vision insurance, short-term or long-term disability insurance, and additional life insurance are also available. Employees may opt for pre-tax payment of premiums and may establish a pre-tax medical expense and/or childcare account.

(k) Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA).

The Consolidated Omnibus Budget Reconciliation Act (COBRA) gives employees and their qualified beneficiaries the opportunity to continue health insurance coverage under the State's health plan when a "qualifying event" would normally result in the loss of eligibility. Some common qualifying events are resignation, termination of employment, or death of an employee; a reduction in an employee's hours, or a leave of absence; an employee's divorce or legal separation; and a dependent child no longer meeting eligibility requirements. Under COBRA, the employee or beneficiary pays the full cost of coverage at the State's group rates plus an administration fee. Employees' Group Insurance provides each eligible employee with a written notice describing rights granted under COBRA when Employees' Group Insurance receives notice from the employee that they may be eligible for coverage under the State's health insurance plan. The notice contains important information about the employee's rights and obligations.

(1) Retirement.

Eligible employees are enrolled in the Wyoming Retirement System's (WRS) pension and Deferred Compensation plans.

Pension Plan. The WRS pension plan is a lifetime monthly retirement benefit upon vesting and meeting the age and service requirements of a particular plan. Vesting represents the length of service required before a member is entitled to a monthly benefit. Vesting and other requirements vary with each plan. A retirement benefit is calculated by applying the multiplier specific to a given plan to a member's earned service credit and highest average salary. In other words, this number multiplied by the member's highest average salary and years of service will approximate the member's annual benefit at retirement. The multiplier for each plan is set by state statute.

Deferred Compensation. The WRS 457 Plan is a powerful savings tool for retirement. Judicial Branch employees are automatically enrolled in the WRS 457 Plan upon hire. If an employee does not want to participate, they must opt out of the plan. Judicial Branch employees receive twenty dollars ($20) per month added to their 457 account if they contribute twenty dollars ($20) or more a month.

Section 4. Time off and leaves of absence.

The Wyoming Judicial Branch recognizes that employees have diverse needs for time off from work and has established various leave policies to assist employees with managing their professional and personal life. Employees are accountable and responsible for managing their own leave hours to allow for adequate reserves if there is a need to cover vacation, illness or disability, appointments, emergencies, or other situations that require time off from work. Employees shall request leave in writing, to their supervisor, as early as possible. Processes for requesting leave may vary by court. There is no assurance that any specific dates for leave will be granted. Time elapsed while an employee is on any authorized leave, except a leave without pay or educational leave, shall be considered paid time for purposes of this section.

(a) Annual leave.

Annual leave may be used by an employee for any purpose. Employees must receive prior approval from their supervisor to use annual leave. The supervisor who approves annual leave shall consider the needs of the employee and staffing requirements in approving annual leave. Annual leave must be used in thirty (30) minute increments.

Accrual. Annual leave accrual rates are determined by the length of completed continuous State service as follows (Some District Court staff such as court reporters and some law clerks do not accrue annual leave. District Court law clerks and court reporters should check with their judge regarding the court’s accrual policy):

0 months through 48 months	10 hours per month
49 months through 108 months	12 hours per month
109 months through 168 months	14 hours per month
169 months or more	16 hours per month

Proration. Employees accrue annual leave according to the number of hours worked in the month, as follows:

160 or more hours	100% of accrual
120-159 hours	75% of accrual
80-119 hours	50% of accrual
40-79 hours	25% of accrual
39 or less hours	0% of accrual

Maximum Accrual of Annual Leave. On December 31st of each year, accrued unused annual leave more than the carry-over maximum will be reduced to the maximum and the employee shall forfeit the right to use this excess leave. The carry-over maximum, which depends upon completed State service, is as follows:

Zero through 108 months	240 hours (30 days)
109 through 168 months	288 hours (36 days)

169 through 228 months	336 hours (42 days)
229 or more months	384 hours (48 days)

Service Credits to Rehired Employees. Service credits for non-continuous service shall be immediately granted to a rehired employee claiming prior Executive, Judicial or Legislative Branch service followed by a separation in service. Prior service shall be on record with the Wyoming Retirement System or may be otherwise verified by the employing department. Service credits shall be given for any calendar month during which work was actually performed.

Carry over from Executive or Legislative Branch. An employee transferring to the Judicial Branch from the Executive or Legislative Branches may transfer any unused or unpaid annual leave. Judicial Branch employees transferring to the Executive or Legislative Branches shall be allowed to transfer unused annual leave.

(b) Sick leave.

Sick leave is available for use when an employee is ill, injured, or disabled; has scheduled medical, mental health, dental, or optical exams or procedures; where the employee needs to provide care for a spouse, parent, child or someone in the employee’s direct care due to illness, injury, or disability; or where the employee needs to assist a spouse, parent, child or someone in the employee’s direct care with medical, mental health, dental, or optical exams or procedures; for death or illness of a member of the employee’s or the employee’s spouse’s family and such other persons as approved by supervisor or Judicial Officer, when bereavement leave has been exhausted or does not apply; or when an employee has been exposed to a contagious disease such that attendance at work could jeopardize the health of others. Sick leave is not eligible for use with absences associated with the illness or care of pets.

Sick leave must be used in not less than thirty (30) minute increments.

Accrual. Employees accrue sick leave according to the number of hours worked in the month, as follows:

160 hours or more	8 hours per month
120-159 hours	6 hours per month
80-119 hours	4 hours per month
40-79 hours	2 hours per month
39 or less hours	no accrual

Sick leave may be accrued without limit, excepting some District Court employees that do not accrue time.

Notification. An employee shall notify a supervisor as soon as possible when using sick leave. Requests for sick leave must be approved by the employee’s supervisor. A supervisor with authority to approve sick leave may at any time require verification of the basis for the leave. Employees may also be required to provide a return-to-work authorization from their health care provider.

Donation of Sick Leave. Any Judicial Branch employee who has accrued a minimum of eighty (80) hours of sick leave may donate up to sixteen (16) hours accrued sick leave per calendar year to an employee of the Judicial Branch or another branch of State government. Immediate family members may donate an unlimited amount of sick leave. Employees must be employed with the State of Wyoming for at least six (6) months to be eligible to receive sick leave donations. In extreme emergency situations, this minimum employment requirement may be waived with Chief Justice or District Court Judge approval, as applicable.

Advance Sick Leave. An employee who has used all accrued sick leave, compensatory time, and annual time, and who has an immediate and reasonable need for sick leave, may, at the discretion of the employee's supervisor, be advanced sick leave not to exceed eight (8) hours for each year of continuous service with the State up to fifteen (15) years, and twelve (12) hours for each year beyond fifteen (15) years continuous service. Advanced sick leave will result in a negative leave balance. Upon return to work, the employee's monthly accrual will offset the negative balance until the leave account equals zero. The employee will be ineligible to use additional sick leave until the balance returns to a positive accrual amount. If employment is terminated with a negative leave balance, the employee will be required to repay the remaining leave used in advance of accrual.

Carryover from Executive or Legislative Branch. An employee appointed without a separation from the State Executive or Legislative Branch shall be allowed to transfer unused sick leave. The employee shall accrue sick leave according to established policies. Judicial Branch employees transferring to another Branch of State Government shall be allowed to transfer unused sick leave.

(c) Compensatory time.

Employees who request to use compensatory time shall be permitted to use such time if the request does not unduly disrupt the operation of the court/division. Compensatory time may not be used for a length of time that would unduly disrupt the operations of the employee's court/division.

Requirements for Use of Compensatory Time. Compensatory time shall be used before taking any annual leave. Compensatory time must be used in thirty (30) minute increments. Compensatory time must be used no later than December 31st of each calendar year.

Prior Approval. All compensatory time must be approved and scheduled by the employee's supervisor. When requesting use of compensatory time, sufficient notice must be given to allow management to make informed decisions based upon operational considerations, including expected absences and unplanned vacancies.

Unused Compensatory Time. All employees will be required to use compensatory time or receive the pay equivalent for earned compensatory time as follows;

- (1) Unused compensatory time balances as of December 31st of each year shall be paid off during the first available payroll cycle following verification of the leave balance;
 - (2) Upon separation from State service;
 - (3) As of one (1) day prior to a promotion effective date;
 - (4) Upon transfer to another agency of State Government; or
 - (5) As deemed appropriate by the Chief Justice for Supreme Court, Chancery Court, and Circuit Court employees and by a District Judge for his/her staff.
- (d) Leaves of absence/leaves without pay/education leave.

Leaves of absence, leave without pay or educational leave may be granted upon such terms as are approved by the employee's supervisor and the State Court Administrator for Supreme Court, Chancery Court, and Circuit Court employees and by the District Judge for District Court employees.

The following are holidays recognized by the Judicial Branch:

- New Year's Day (January 1)
- Martin Luther King, Jr./Wyoming Equality Day (third Monday in January)
- President's Day (third Monday in February)
- Memorial Day (last Monday in May)
- Independence Day (July 4)
- Labor Day (first Monday in September)
- Veteran's Day (November 11)
- Thanksgiving Day (fourth Thursday in November)
- Christmas Day (December 25)

Additional Paid Holidays. At times, County buildings are closed for holidays not authorized by the Judicial Branch. It is at the Judge's discretion whether court employees will work on those days.

The Branch may also recognize additional holidays as follows:

Upon declaration of the Chief Justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court, any date declared by the President of the United States as an occasion of national mourning, rejoicing, or observance or national emergency.

Such other days as the Chief Justice of the Wyoming Supreme Court may declare to be paid court holidays.

Observed Holidays. Whenever a holiday falls on a Saturday, the preceding Friday shall be the observed holiday, and whenever one falls on a Sunday, the following Monday shall be the observed holiday.

Eligibility for Holiday Leave. Employees who work twenty (20) hours or more per week are eligible for Holiday Leave. Employees shall receive eight (8) hours of holiday leave with pay for all recognized holidays. Employees who work less than eight (8) hours per day receive a pro-rated amount.

Employees must work or use available paid leave on the day before and the day after a holiday or observed holiday to be eligible for paid Holiday Leave.

Holiday Premium Time Accrual. A nonexempt employee required to work on an official State holiday will be given compensatory time at a rate of one and one-half (1½) hours off for each hour worked during the holiday. District Court policies regarding holiday premium pay may vary. District Court employees should check with their judge regarding the court's holiday premium pay policy.

Holiday Base Time Accrual. A nonexempt, full-time employee required to work more than thirty-two (32) hours during a week that includes a holiday will receive additional compensatory time on an hour for hour basis for each hour worked above thirty-two (32) hours up to forty (40) hours in the week. Any hours worked over forty (40) hours will be earned as compensatory time at a rate of one and one-half (1½) hours off for each hour worked over forty (40). Part-time employees may also earn compensatory time during a holiday week if they work more than their regularly scheduled hours. District Court policies regarding holiday pay may vary. District Court employees should check with their judge regarding the court's holiday pay policy.

An employee subpoenaed as a witness, except as a witness in their own case, or summoned for jury duty shall be on administrative leave with pay. Each supervisor shall require appropriate documentation prior to the start of jury duty. The employee may retain any witness or juror fees received. Employees are expected to report for work whenever the court schedule permits.

(g) Military leave.

The Judicial Branch conforms to the leave and other requirements set out by Wyo. Stat. Ann. §§ 19-11-106, 19-11-107, and 19-11-108. Employees in need of military leave should contact Human Resources to discuss the leave available.

Employees receive up to forty (40) hours of bereavement leave upon the death of an immediate family member as defined in Section 1, Definitions of this Guide. Employees may use leave time immediately following the death or at another time within twelve (12) months should memorial services be delayed.

An employee may be required to submit substantiating evidence of the need for leave. Bereavement leave is not authorized for absences related to the death of a pet(s).

(i) Inclement weather leave.

If the Chief Justice or other Judicial Officer declares that inclement weather, or any other unanticipated work interruption, requires the closure of a court or courts, the employees' time away from work is treated as paid administrative leave. Employees who are on approved leave when the court closes for inclement weather are not eligible for administrative leave. Their time will be treated as the leave already approved. Employees who are unable to work due to inclement weather when the Chief or other Judicial Officer has not declared inclement weather leave will be required to use annual leave.

(j) Voting leave.

Each employee is allowed one (1) hour away from work to vote in any statewide or local election if the employee's work schedule does not provide for a three (3) hour window while voting polls are open (Wyo. Stat. Ann. § 22-2-111(b)).

(k) Administrative review leave.

A Judicial Officer may place an employee on administrative review leave with or without pay. Circuit Court Judges and Magistrates must consult with the State Court Administrator prior to placing an employee on administrative review leave. An employee may be placed on leave for no more than thirty (30) days, subject to extension as provided below, when:

- (1) The employee is charged with or is under investigation for the commission of a crime which would raise reasonable doubt concerning the employee's suitability for continued employment;
- (2) Allegations of misconduct have been made and, if confirmed, the employee's presence on the job may be detrimental to the operation of the court/division; or
- (3) A formal workplace investigation has commenced and removing a witness or complaining party from the workplace is needed to conduct a full investigation.

Employees placed on administrative review leave will receive written notice of such leave. Employees are not entitled to administrative review leave. Administrative review leave will be granted at the discretion of the employee's supervisor and does not affect the employee's at-will status.

Extension. The Chief Justice or Judicial Officer may extend an administrative review leave beyond thirty (30) days if the circumstances warrant such an extension. Circuit Court Judges and Magistrates must consult with the State Court Administrator prior to extending administrative review leave.

Return to Work. If the reason for Administrative Review Leave is resolved and it is determined the employee can return to work, the employee shall be granted pay for any lost wages incurred during the leave.

(1) Family and Medical Leave Act (FMLA).

The Family Medical Leave Act (FMLA) provides unpaid, job-protected leave to assist eligible employees when they are unable to work because of a qualifying reason. All terms of this section shall be interpreted in accordance with the Family and Medical Leave Act of 1993 (FMLA) of the United States.

Qualifying reasons include the following:

- (1) An employee's own serious health condition;
- (2) A need to care for a parent, spouse, or child with a serious health condition;
- (3) The birth of a child and to bond with the newborn child;
- (4) Adoption of a child or foster care placement to bond with the child;
- (5) For certain qualifying exigencies when an employee's spouse, child, or parent is on covered active duty or called to covered active duty in the Armed Forces, including the National Guard or Reserves; or
- (6) In certain situations, to care for a current service member or veteran of the employee's family with a serious injury or illness, in which case twenty-six (26) weeks of unpaid leave will be allowed.

Employees who are absent for more than three (3) days due to illness, injury, disability or to care for a parent, spouse or child may qualify for FMLA. Please contact Human Resources to discuss.

Use of FMLA Leave. Leave may be taken all at once, intermittently or on a reduced schedule for health conditions, if needed. Intermittent or reduced schedule leave is determined based upon health needs as specified by the healthcare provider. For planned health treatments or procedures, the employee must make a reasonable effort to schedule the treatment so as not to unduly disrupt business operations. Leave for birth, bonding or placement of a child shall not be taken intermittently or on a reduced leave schedule unless the employee and his/her supervisor agree or unless it is medically necessary.

Advance Notice. To take FMLA leave, employees must provide their supervisor with advance notice in writing. Planned events such as surgery or childbirth require at least thirty (30) days advance notice. If an employee learns of a need for leave less than thirty (30) days in advance, the employee must notify their supervisor as soon as possible (generally either the day they learn of the need or the next workday). When the need for FMLA leave is unexpected (for example, if a family member is injured in an accident), the supervisor must be informed as soon as possible.

Notice of FMLA. When a supervisor is put on notice that an employee is experiencing an issue that could qualify for leave under the FMLA, the supervisor must notify the Human Resources Manager. Employees may also notify Human Resources directly of the need for FMLA leave. Once a supervisor is aware an employee may be eligible for FMLA, even if the employee does not request it directly, Human Resources is required to provide the employee with FMLA information and request completion of FMLA forms.

Eligibility. The Human Resources Manager will verify the employee is eligible for leave under the FMLA. To be eligible, the employee must:

- a. Be employed by the State of Wyoming for twelve (12) months prior to the need for FMLA leave (this time is not required to be consecutive);
- b. Have worked a minimum of one thousand two hundred fifty (1,250) hours within the last twelve (12) months; and
- c. Have a qualifying reason for the leave as defined by the FMLA.

FMLA Forms. Human Resources must provide the employee with a Notice of Eligibility and Rights and Responsibilities form within five (5) working days of notification of the need for leave. Employees will be required to return an appropriate medical certification form completed by a health care provider or, in the instance of military or child placement reasons, documentation of the need for leave. Employees who fail to return certification or documentation may be denied FMLA. Once all forms are received and FMLA is approved, Human Resources will provide a Designation Notice form to the employee informing them of their placement on FMLA.

Employees are responsible for providing information regarding the reason for FMLA leave. While employees do not have to provide a diagnosis, they do need to provide information indicating that the leave is due to an FMLA-qualifying condition. If enough information is not provided to know that the leave may be covered by the FMLA, the employee may not be entitled to job-protected leave.

FMLA leave shall not exceed twelve (12) weeks (or four hundred eighty (480) hours for intermittent leave) in a twelve (12) month period for family and health reasons or twenty-six (26) weeks for military-related health reasons.

Use of Paid Leave. The Judicial Branch requires employees to use any earned sick leave, annual leave, compensatory time, or other available leave while on FMLA leave, unless the medical condition is a result of a workers' compensation injury or illness. Paid leave is used along with FMLA leave so the employee continues to receive a paycheck.

Employees with Short Term Disability benefits may choose unpaid FMLA leave after all sick leave is exhausted to use those benefits. Employees may also request sick leave donations once all available paid leave is exhausted, upon approval by the employee's supervisor.

Health Insurance Coverage. An employee will be retained on the State's health plan under the same conditions that applied before the FMLA leave commenced. To continue health coverage, the employee must continue to make any contributions that he/she made to the plan before taking leave. If the employee has used all leave and is currently on unpaid leave while under FMLA protection, the employee must independently contribute to his/her health insurance. This payment will not be made by the employer or Human Resources on behalf of the employee. Failure of the employee to pay the required share of the health insurance premium may result in loss of coverage.

If the employee fails to return to work after the expiration of the leave, the employee will be required to reimburse the State of Wyoming for payment of health insurance premiums during the FMLA leave, unless the reason the employee fails to return is the existence of a serious health condition which prevents the employee from performing the employee's job or other exigent circumstances beyond the employee's control.

Return to Work. Once the employee no longer needs FMLA leave, the employee must notify Human Resources or the employee's supervisor on the ability to return to work. If an employee wishes to return to work prior to the expiration of an FMLA leave of absence, notification must be given to the employee's supervisor at least five (5) working days prior to the employee's planned return. Employees who return to work prior to exhausting FMLA leave will be returned to their previous position or to a position with equivalent pay, benefits, and other terms and conditions of employment. Employees on leave for their own health condition will be required to submit a release to return to work from their healthcare provider to Human Resources or the employee's supervisor. The release should also indicate if the employee has any work-related restrictions. The failure of an employee to return to work upon the expiration of an FMLA leave of absence may result in the termination of employment.

Unable to Return to Work. Employees unable to return to work after using all available FMLA leave must contact Human Resources and the matter will be reviewed to determine available options with the employee depending on the specific circumstances of their need for continued leave. An employee may request an extension of unpaid leave due to the continuation, recurrence, or onset of the employee's own serious health condition, or of a serious health condition of the employee's spouse, child, or parent, and must submit a request for an extension, in writing, to the employee's supervisor, who will report that matter to Human Resources. This written request shall be made as soon as the employee realizes that he/she will not be able to return at the expiration of the leave period.

If circumstances arise concerning FMLA, which are not specifically addressed by this policy statement, the employee should consult with his/her supervisor or the Human Resources Manager for clarification.

Section 5. Conduct of Judicial Employees.

It is essential that all Judicial Branch employees observe high standards of conduct to maintain professionalism in the workplace and public confidence in the integrity and independence of the judicial system. Judicial Branch employees must discharge their duties in a manner that creates confidence ensuring the judicial system is fair and impartial; court decisions, rules, and policies are made through established procedures; Judicial Branch employees will be discreet and maintain confidentiality of information when required by rule or statute; and Judicial Branch employees will not misuse their positions to obtain unauthorized benefits. The Code of Judicial Conduct prohibits bias or prejudice and harassment based upon race, sex, gender religion national origin, ethnicity, disability, age, sexual orientation marital status socioeconomic status, or political affiliation.¹ Each employee is expected to read and understand the Wyoming Code of Judicial Conduct. Questions related to the Code should be directed to the employee's supervisor.

It is also important that Judicial Branch employees foster respect and credibility within their communities by adhering to high standards of conduct in the areas of customer service, job performance, personal integrity, professional responsibility, and by avoiding not only impropriety, but the appearance of impropriety. As public servants, Branch employees are expected to be approachable, professional, non-discriminatory, respectful, and courteous.

(a) Equal employment opportunity.

All employees and applicants shall be recruited, selected, trained, promoted, retained, and terminated without regard to race, national origin, religious creed, age, gender, or disability, unless such is related to a bona fide occupational qualification.

(b) Commitment to diversity.

The Judicial Branch is committed to creating and maintaining a workplace in which all employees have an opportunity to participate and contribute to the success of the Branch and are valued for their skills, experience, and unique perspectives.

(c) Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA).

The Judicial Branch fully complies with the Americans with Disabilities Act (ADA). To ensure equal employment opportunities to qualified individuals with a disability, the Judicial Branch will make reasonable accommodations for the known disability of an otherwise qualified individual, unless undue hardship on the operation of the business would result. Employees who may require a reasonable accommodation should contact Human Resources.

It is the Judicial Branch's policy to provide a work environment free of sexual and other harassment or discrimination. To that end, harassment of employees by management, supervisors, coworkers, or nonemployees who are in the workplace is absolutely prohibited. Further, any retaliation against an individual who has complained about sexual or other harassment or retaliation against individuals for cooperating with an investigation of a harassment complaint is similarly unlawful and will not be tolerated. The Judicial Branch will take all steps necessary to prevent and eliminate unlawful harassment.

Unlawful Harassment. "Unlawful harassment" is conduct that has the purpose or effect of creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive work environment; has the purpose or effect of substantially and unreasonably interfering with an individual's work performance; or otherwise adversely affects an individual's employment opportunities because of the individual's membership in a protected class.

Unlawful harassment includes, but is not limited to, epithets; slurs; jokes; pranks; innuendo; offensive comments; written or graphic offensive material; stereotyping; or other threatening, hostile, or intimidating acts based on race, color, ancestry, national origin, gender, sex, sexual orientation, marital status, religion, age, disability, veteran status, or other characteristic protected by state or federal law.

Sexual harassment is unwelcome sexual advances, request for sexual favors, and other verbal or physical conduct of a sexual nature when: (1) submission to such conduct is made either explicitly or implicitly a term or condition of employment; (2) submission to or rejection of such conduct is used as a basis for employment decisions affecting such individual; or (3) such conduct has the purpose or effect of unreasonable interference with an individual's work performance or creating an intimidating, hostile, or offensive working environment.

Discrimination. "Discrimination" is disparate treatment in a term or condition of employment of any individual, not based on legitimate factors, but based on a protected class. A term or condition of employment includes but is not limited to hiring, work assignments, promotion or promotion opportunities, classification, transfers, granting or denying privileges, compensation, or performance reviews.

Complaint Procedure. Although staff members can file complaints at any time with the HR Manager, they are encouraged to file their complaints as quickly as possible following the act. Complaints of discrimination or harassment may be made verbally or in writing. Whenever possible, employees are encouraged to report allegations of harassment or discrimination in writing. Complaints shall include the following:

- (1) Name of the complainant;
- (2) Name(s) of person(s) alleged to have engaged in prohibited conduct; and

- (3) A specific and detailed description of the conduct which the staff member believes violates this policy to include when the conduct occurred.

Perceived violation(s) of the Harassment and Discrimination policy may be reported to the complainant's immediate supervisor, other management personnel, or Human Resources. If a person reports a perceived violation of this policy to a supervisor, the supervisor is required to report it to a Judicial Officer or Human Resources and does not have the discretion to keep the matter confidential, even if requested to do so by the reporting party.

Use of the chain of command is encouraged when the staff member is comfortable reporting to their immediate supervisor. However, staff may report to Human Resources or the State Court Administrator and need not observe any particular chain of command.

The Human Resources Manager shall review all complaints of harassment, discrimination, and retaliation at the time of receipt. The Human Resources Manager shall promptly notify the Chief Justice, the appropriate District Court Judge or the Chairman of the District Court Judges Conference, a Chancery Court Judge, or the appropriate Circuit Court Judge of the complaint. The Human Resources Manager shall ensure the complaint is addressed.

Each complaint shall be reviewed by the Human Resources Manager to determine whether any alleged violations of policy occurred. Following review of the complaint, an investigation may be recommended to determine the facts of the matter. A full investigation of the complaint may not be necessary but instead referred to appropriate management staff to resolve the concerns. The employee filing the complaint will be notified of any conclusions.

Confidentiality. All complaints and investigations are confidential to the extent possible, and information is disclosed strictly on a need-to-know basis. The identity of the complainant(s) is usually revealed to the party involved during the investigation, and steps will be taken to ensure the complainant is protected from retaliation during and after the investigation. All information pertaining to a complaint or investigation under this policy will be maintained in secure files with Human Resources.

Nothing in this policy precludes a person from filing a formal complaint with the Wyoming Department of Workforce Services Division of Labor Standards or the Federal Equal Employment Opportunity Commission (EEOC).

- (e) Conflicts of interest.

Every employee shall avoid conflicts of interest. A conflict of interest exists when the employee's objective ability or independence of judgment in the performance of the employee's duties is impaired or may reasonably appear to be impaired, or when an employee, or the employee's immediate family or business interest would derive financial gain because of the employee's position within the court system.

Even though misuse or abuse of office is not involved, a conflict of interest can undermine the community's confidence and trust in the court system. Therefore, every employee is required to exercise diligence in becoming aware of conflicts of interest, disclosing conflicts to the appropriate judicial authority, and ending them when they arise.

Employees shall not enter into any financial or other relationship with another entity of State government, private business, or other organization, which would constitute a conflict of interest with Judicial Branch employment. Employees shall not permit themselves to be placed under any personal or other obligation, which could lead any person, group, or organization to expect favors.

(f) Personal/ romantic relationships.

The Judicial Branch strongly supports a work environment where employees maintain clear boundaries between personal and professional interactions. Although this policy does not prevent the development of friendships or romantic relationships between co-workers, it does establish boundaries as to how relationships are conducted within the work environment.

Employees are expected to conduct themselves in an appropriate workplace manner that does not interfere with others or with overall productivity. Employees are strictly prohibited from engaging in physical contact that would in any way be deemed inappropriate while at work. If a personal relationship between employees becomes romantic, intimate, or sexual in nature, and impacts the workplace or causes a conflict of interest, then it is the responsibility and obligation of the employees involved to disclose the existence of the relationship to their supervisor and/or Human Resources.

Judges, Supervisors and Managers. Employees in supervisory or managerial roles, and those with authority over others are subject to more stringent requirements due to their status as role models, their access to sensitive information, and their ability to affect the terms and conditions of employment of individuals in subordinate positions.

Section 6. Workplace Expectations.

(a) Use of state property.

Employees shall protect and conserve State property, equipment, and supplies entrusted or issued to them. Employees can use office telephones for personal, non-commercial, non-political communications on their personal time, as long as such use does not involve any additional cost to the State (e.g., long-distance charges) or interfere in any way with office business. This same policy applies to the personal use of fax machines. Fax machines may be used to send local call faxes but may not be used to send long distance faxes.

(b) Use of computer and court-provided technology.

The Judicial Branch provides a wide variety of communication tools and resources to employees for use in running day-to-day business activities. Whether it is the computer, telephone, voice mail, fax, scanner, Internet, intranet, e-mail, text messaging, or any other Court-provided technology, use should be reserved for business-related matters during working hours. All communication using these tools should be handled in a professional and respectful manner.

Office telephones, Judicial Branch supplied cell phones, and other electronic resources provided by the Judicial Branch are intended for business purposes. Use of electronic resources provided by the Judicial Branch for activities relevant to an employee's personal life or family are permitted to the extent they do not distract from the dignity of the judiciary or interfere with the performance of the employee's normal work duties or equipment.

Employees do not have any expectation of privacy in their use of Court computer, phone, or other communication tools. All communications made using Court-provided equipment or services including email and internet activity, are subject to inspection by the Judicial Branch. Employees should keep in mind that even if they delete an email, voicemail or other communication, a copy may be archived on the Court's systems.

Employee use of State-provided communication systems, including personal e-mail and internet use, that are not job-related have the potential to drain, rather than enhance, productivity and system performance. No user shall intentionally or negligently damage or interfere with the operation of, or prohibit authorized access to, court information or other technology-related resources.

The Judicial Branch encourages use of Judicial Branch e-mail accounts for work-related communication only. Internal and external e-mails are considered business records and may be subject to federal and state recordkeeping requirements as well as to discovery in the event of litigation. Be aware of this possibility when sending e-mails within and outside the Court.

Data on the Judicial Branch's network will be protected from unlawful disclosure. It is important for each user, however, to understand that all information on the Judicial network housed in the Supreme Court and on court computer assets belong to the Judicial Branch. Authorized users shall not allow or facilitate another employee, contractor, volunteer, or the public to access internal court resources using their authorized account or personally assigned credentials, such as a username or password. This includes email, case management, data warehouse (Statewide Court Information Store (SCIS)) resources, etc.

Information Technology (IT) Division employees may periodically audit, inspect, and monitor any user's network activity, and all data stored on state issued equipment for the purpose of safeguarding the Judicial Branch's network or in the performance of their duties. This includes but is not limited to monitoring sites visited by employees on the Internet, chat groups, newsgroups, blogs, and reviewing material downloaded from or uploaded to the Internet from personal equipment. In addition, the IT Division may limit or block access to specific online resources not required for conducting court business, such as streaming audio or video. Investigating specific inappropriate employee access to, or use of, electronic resources by the IT Division must be explicitly requested and approved by the State Court Administrator or District Judge and if evidence of abuse is identified by the IT Division, it shall be furnished to the appropriate Judicial Officer and the Chief Justice.

Inappropriate Conduct or Use of Court Technology. Any of the following activities will be considered inappropriate:

- (1) Use of Internet or electronic mail that violates federal or state laws, including the unauthorized storage or distribution of copyrighted material;
- (2) Use of Internet or electronic mail to transmit or obtain threatening, obscene, harassing, or malicious materials;
- (3) Use of abusive or objectionable language either in public or private messages;
- (4) Misrepresentation of oneself or the Judicial Branch;
- (5) Activities or uses that may cause congestion or disruption of networks or systems;
- (6) Using Judicial Branch electronic services for the downloading of personal software, screensavers, or third-party software that puts any court resource or information at risk or system malfunction;
- (7) Downloading, copying, distributing, or storing movies, music, software, books, etc. in violation of copyright laws;
- (8) Using Judicial Branch resources for viewing or distributing content, which is considered violent, offensive, graphic, or sexually explicit;

(c) Confidentiality.

No employee shall disclose to any unauthorized person, for any purpose, confidential information acquired in the course of employment, or through the unauthorized disclosure by another. Confidential information includes, but is not limited to, information on pending cases that is not already a matter of public record, as well as information concerning the work product of any Judge, law clerk, staff attorney or other employee. However, in assuring the integrity of the judicial system, employees are not prohibited from reporting confidential information to the appropriate authority when the employee reasonably believes that the information is, or may be, evidence of a violation of law or of unethical conduct.

(d) Nepotism.

The Judicial Branch supports administrative appointments based on merit and avoids nepotism, favoritism, and unnecessary appointments. As such, no applicant may be appointed, or employee remain in a position in the Judicial Branch if a member of his/her immediate family is employed under the direction of the same supervisor or will supervise an immediate family member.

(e) Courtesy and civility.

Employees shall always be courteous, civil, considerate, and impartial in dealing with one another, as well as with the public and users of the court system. Behavior that violates this guideline is detrimental to morale, as well as harmful to a safe and stable work environment free of hostility and animosity.

(f) Professional appearance.

Employees of the Judicial Branch are expected to dress appropriately in accordance with their court's expectations. Business casual attire is preferred and includes suits, pants, jackets, shirts, skirts, and dresses that, while not formal, are appropriate for the business environment. Maintaining well-kept hair, good personal hygiene, and general neat grooming is expected.

(g) Legal advice.

Employees are not authorized to give legal advice or recommend the names of private attorneys to the public or users of the court system.

(h) Political activity.

It is important for public confidence in the Judicial Branch that our Judicial Officers are perceived as independent and impartial. This is eroded if the judiciary is perceived as being subject to political influence. As such, employees of the Judicial Branch must understand the need to ensure their own political views do not influence the public perception of the judiciary.

Each employee retains the right to vote as the employee chooses. Employees wishing to participate in political campaigns during non-working hours must discuss their activities with their Judicial Officer or supervisor to ensure there is no violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct regarding political and campaign activities. Such activity includes, but is not limited to, membership and holding office in a political party, campaigning for a candidate in a partisan election by making speeches and making contributions of time or money to individual candidates, political parties or other groups engaged in political activity. An employee who is approved to participate in political activity during off-duty hours shall not use the employee's position or title within the court system in connection with such political activities.

Employees shall not use any office or courtroom equipment including but not limited to phones, computers, copiers, scanners, fax machines or supplies to assist in political activities or campaigns. Employees shall not use official authority or influence to interfere with or influence the result of an election or nomination for office; directly or indirectly coerce a State officer or employee to pay, lend or contribute anything of value to a party, committee, organization, agency, or person for political purposes; or conduct any political activity on State time.

An employee serving as a member of a partisan or non-partisan, elected or appointed office shall be required to take leave without pay for the performance of all such duties. However, an employee's participation as a member of a partisan or non-partisan elected or appointed office shall not conflict or reasonably give the appearance of conflicting with the interests of the Judicial Branch, and satisfactory job performance must be maintained by such employee.

Discrimination against any person in recruitment, examination, appointment, retention, discipline, or any other aspect of personnel administration because of political opinion or affiliation is prohibited. No questions shall be asked on any application, examination or interview which would directly or indirectly require the disclosure of a person's political affiliation, preferences, or opinions. Applicants and employees are prohibited from using political influence as an advantage in securing or making appointments or for other personal benefit for themselves or others in personnel matters.

(i) Outside employment.

Each full-time employee's position with the Judicial Branch must be the employee's primary employment. Outside employment is permissible only if it can be accomplished outside of the normal working hours, does not require the practice of law, does not conflict, or reasonably give the appearance of conflicting with interests of the Judicial Branch, does not bring undue attention to the Branch, satisfactory job performance is maintained, and the outside employment has been approved in writing by the supervisor.

(j) Social media.

Social media provides inexpensive, informal, and timely ways to participate in an exchange of ideas and information. However, information posted on a website is available to the public and, therefore, the Judicial Branch has established the following guidelines for employee participation in social media.

Off-duty use of Social Media. Online communication may be perceived by court litigants, vendors, and the public generally as a representation of a person's character, judgment, and values and could have an adverse effect on the confidence of the public in the integrity, propriety, and impartiality of the judiciary regardless of intent. Employees may maintain social media profiles, personal websites or weblogs on their own time using their own facilities. Employees must ensure that social media activity does not interfere with their work. In general, the Judicial Branch considers social media activities to be personal endeavors, and employees may use them to express their thoughts or promote their ideas.

When posting on a social media network an employee shall not post information or express opinions regarding employees, managers, judges, court cases, policies, or procedures of the Judicial Branch.

Employees are responsible for regularly viewing the social media they create or host and promptly removing third-party posts that: (1) compromise court security or the safety of judges, employees, attorneys, or litigants; (2) reveal non-public court records or other confidential judicial information; or (3) contain information that the employee could not have posted personally under this policy.

Employees should keep in mind the risks of social media activity. Social media posts should be presumed public and permanent. Social Media posts can be copied, forwarded, and subpoenaed. Posts are easily reproduced, can be difficult to eradicate, and may be seen by wide and unintended audiences. Once posted, there is little to no control over a post's dissemination or ultimate use. Posting some types of information on social media may be misleading (even though it is not so intended) and may jeopardize the person's professional image or reputation. Employees should be especially careful when posting or sharing photographs and personal information, and be similarly cautious when sharing political, religious, or social opinions.

Employees are personally responsible for comments posted on social media and can expose themselves to personal liability or work-related consequences for comments that are defamatory, obscene, discriminatory, or otherwise offensive or unlawful.

On-duty use of Social Media. Employees may engage in social media activity during work time provided it is directly related to their work and approved by their supervisor. The IT Division monitors employee use of Branch computers and the Internet, including employee blogging and social networking activity.

Prohibited Activities. Judicial Branch employees are prohibited from engaging in the following social media activities, whether the activity is done on or off duty and whether the activity is using personal or Wyoming Judicial Branch technology resources and regardless of whether Wyoming Judicial Branch employment is identified:

- (1) Confidential or Non-Public Court or Probation Information: Disclosure of sensitive, confidential, or non-public court information, to include photos, for any purpose not connected with official duties, including disclosure of information relating to a pending case is prohibited;
- (2) Comment about Public Information: Posting about a case or matter before the courts; making statements which create, or give the appearance of, a conflict of interest; and making comments which negatively reflect on the professionalism of the courts or which otherwise have an adverse effect on the confidence of the public in the integrity, propriety, and impartiality of the judicial system is prohibited;
- (3) Political Activities: Making statements on social media which violate the Judicial Branch's restrictions on political activities is prohibited;
- (4) Seal and Logos: The seal, logos, trademarks, or service marks of the Wyoming courts collectively, and any individual court or judicial department or committee, may not be used in any manner;
- (5) Judicial Process: Employees must refrain from discussing any of the court's internal processes and procedures, whether they are of a non-confidential or confidential nature, including scans, photos, or reproductions of emails or text messages;
- (6) Dishonest Communications: Employees must avoid deceptive behavior and misrepresentations online, including false and defamatory statements and communicating electronically or creating websites or accounts while employing a misleading alias or suggesting that the employee is someone else. This provision does not apply to the routine and accepted practice on the Internet of employing a nickname or other opaque username to create an account or make a posting, provided the username is not misleading or deceptive in the context used or would not otherwise violate any provision of this Guide had the employee's true identity been disclosed;

- (7) Harassment: Employees must not engage in harassing or discriminatory behavior that targets other employees or individuals. Even if a message is posted anonymously, it may be possible to trace it back to the sender; and
- (8) Applicable Laws: Employees must comply with all applicable laws, including but not limited to, Federal Trade Commission (FTC) guidelines, copyright, trademark, and harassment laws, and follow the rules of the social network site.

The Judicial Branch reserves the right to visit and monitor public social media sites to ensure employees are not violating this Guide or other Judicial Branch policies. As a condition of continued employment, the Judicial Branch may request employees to cooperate in any investigation regarding the alleged violation of this policy.

(k) Law enforcement contact.

Any employee who is arrested and/or formally charged with any criminal offense, including driving while intoxicated or under the influence, shall notify his/her supervisor (or appropriate Judicial Officer) of the charges by the next business day (i.e., Monday through Friday, excluding holidays). The supervisor shall advise Human Resources of any such charges within a reasonable time thereafter but no later than forty-eight (48) hours after receipt of initial notification.

- (a) Minor traffic violations received in a personal vehicle are not required to be reported, minor traffic violations include but are not limited to parking, speeding, and moving violations.
- (b) Minor traffic violations received while in a state-owned vehicle shall be reported to the employee's supervisor.
- (c) Offenses related to reckless driving, and other serious misdemeanors must be reported.
- (d) The employee shall notify his/her supervisor upon final disposition of the case as to whether he/she was convicted in a court of law. Such notice shall be made by the next business day after the final disposition.

Criminal Charges. Formal charges may constitute grounds for administrative action or dismissal. An employee may be placed on administrative review leave pending disposition of formal charges.

Incarceration. Employees who are incarcerated are not eligible to use any form of paid leave to cover the absence. Absences from work due to incarceration are unexcused and the employee is subject to dismissal from employment.

Criminal Convictions. A conviction may constitute grounds for dismissal.

Section 7. Workplace Safety.(a) *Commitment to safety.

Protecting the safety of our employees and visitors is imperative. All employees have the opportunity and responsibility to contribute to a safe work environment by using commonsense rules and safe practices and by notifying their supervisor when any health or safety issues are present.

In the event of an emergency, notify the appropriate emergency personnel by dialing nine (9) for an outside line, then dial 911 to activate the medical emergency services.

The Courts and their respective justices or judges may enact policies, at their discretion, or in accordance with public health directives, to protect employees and the public related to public health matters. Employees shall comply with any orders or their respective judicial officer(s).

(b) Drug-free and alcohol-free workplace.

The Judicial Branch supports a drug- and alcohol-free work environment that is safe and productive for employees as well as the citizens we serve.

The unlawful use, possession, purchase, sale, distribution of any illegal drug and/or misuse of legal drugs while on State or County premises or while performing services for the Judicial Branch is strictly prohibited. The Judicial Branch also prohibits reporting to work or performing services under the influence of alcohol or consuming alcohol while on duty or during work hours.

(c) Smoke-free workplace.

Smoking is not allowed in State or County buildings or work areas at any time. Smoking includes the use of any tobacco products (including chewing tobacco), electronic smoking devices, and e-cigarettes.

Smoking is only permitted during break times in designated outdoor areas. Employees using these areas are expected to dispose of any smoking debris safely and properly.

(d) Workplace violence prevention.

The Judicial Branch is committed to providing a safe, violence-free workplace for our employees. Due to this commitment, we discourage employees from engaging in any physical confrontation with a violent or potentially violent individual or from behaving in a threatening or violent manner. Threats, threatening language, or any other acts of aggression or violence made toward or by any employee will not be tolerated. A threat may include any verbal or physical harassment or abuse, attempts to intimidate others, menacing gestures, stalking, or any other hostile, aggressive, and/or destructive actions taken for the purposes of intimidation. This Guide covers any violent or potentially violent behavior that occurs in the workplace.

All Judicial Branch employees bear the responsibility of keeping the work environment free from violence or potential violence. Any employee who witnesses, or is the recipient of, violent behavior shall promptly inform their supervisor, manager, or the Human Resources Manager. All reported violence or threats of violence will be promptly investigated. No employee will be subject to retaliation, intimidation, or discipline because of reporting in good faith under this Guide.

Section 8. Separation and Reduction in Force.

An employee intending to voluntarily separate from Judicial Branch service shall submit written notification to the employee's supervisor specifying the effective date of the intended resignation. Notification is requested as far in advance as possible and should provide no less than fourteen (14) days' notice prior to the date of intended resignation. A copy of any notice of resignation immediately shall be forwarded to Human Resources. An employee who has provided a resignation notice and wishes to change the effective date or rescind the notification may be allowed to do so with the written approval of the Judicial Officer or division supervisor.

(b) Retirement.

Employees separating from Judicial Branch service due to retirement shall follow procedures established by the Wyoming Retirement System and shall give at least fourteen (14) days written notice of the intent to retire to an immediate supervisor who immediately shall forward a copy of the notice to Human Resources.

(c) Reduction in force.

A reduction in force is an involuntary termination of an employee from State service due to a legislative mandate, shortage of funds, lack of work, organizational changes, or other reasons of business necessity which require a reduction in staff. Separation by reduction in force shall not be used to discipline an employee for unsatisfactory work performance or undesirable conduct.

Procedures - Supreme Court, Chancery and Circuit Courts. If a reduction in force is deemed necessary, the Supreme Court in collaboration with the Circuit Court Conference shall determine the court where reductions will be made. The State Court Administrator shall notify, in writing, the supervisor and the affected employee at least thirty (30) days in advance of the separation date.

Procedures - District Courts. If a reduction in force is deemed necessary, the judge shall determine who is to be separated within the court affected.

Rehiring of Employees Separated through a Reduction in Force. If an employee who was separated due to a reduction in force is rehired within twelve (12) months by the court from which the employee was originally separated, the employee shall retain rights to employee status, anniversary date, leave accrual rates, longevity benefits, and continuous service credits held at the time of separation.

(d) Compensation upon termination.

Sick Leave.
